HISTORY

OF THE

ANCIENT ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.

THE following pages are not intended to give a full and elaborate history of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite ; space cannot be spared in a work intended only as a monitor or hand book for the guidance and instruction of those having an interest in the Rite ;—yet it is deemed proper and expedient to insert a brief history for the information of those who might not have the opportunity of searching and examining a subject claiming so much interest.

The antiquity of Freemasonry and its ancient history are evidently involved in fable, and the few authentic historians whose works are extant, have thrown but little light upon the subject. The opinions of those who have written on Freemasonry have differed with regard to its origin as an organized institution.

Dr. Robinson who, it is well known, labored to identify Freemasonry with Illuminism, ascribed its origin to the association of Dionysian artificers ; Chevalier Ramsay has endeavored to prove that it arose during the crusades ; Mr. Clinch, that it originated from the institution of Pythagoras ; Mr. Barruel, that it is a continuation of the Templars, etc.

Hence it will be seen that it has been allowed, even by the most skeptical, to have been instituted at a period sufficiently remote to entitle it to the appellation of "Ancient;" and we may here dismiss the subject by noting the fact that "its most learned enemies cannot point to the time when Freemasonry did not exist, which gives it a fame—a pre-eminence—to which the history of other institutions affords no parallel."

It is not claimed that the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite is of extreme antiquity, yet the frosts of time decorate its brow. Although in a detached form, doubtless some of the degrees had their origin as early as the fourteenth century ; yet the Rite, as such, germinated in the latter part of the seventeenth century, and took its distinctive character in the beginning of the eighteenth century.

The late Giles Fonda Yates, a member of the British Archaeological Association, Grand Commander of the Northern Supreme Council of the United States, gave as the result of his research the following :

“The proofs are undeniable that the learning contained in the ‘Sublime Degrees,’ was taught long previous to the last century—our M.: P.: Brother Dalcho (Rev. Doctor)—thinks shortly after the first crusade. In Prussia, France and Scotland the principal degrees of our Rite appeared in an organized form in 1713. The unfortunate Lord Derwentwater and his associate English brethren were working in lodges of Harodim, in 1725, in Paris, when the Grand Lodge of England transmitted to France the Ancient York Constitutions. Many Scotch brethren (adherents of the pretender, James Stuart) being in France about this time, also cultivated some of the high degrees of our Rite.”

The opponents of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, such as Findel and others, assert that the Rite took its origin about the year 1740. from Michael Andrew Ramsay, a native of Scotland, generally known as the “Chevalier Ramsay,” who was born at Ayr in 1686, and died in St. Germain-en-laye, in France, in 1743 ; that from the time of the banishment of the Stuarts from England in 1688, secret alliances had been kept up between Rome and Scotland, the Pretender Stuart having retired in 1719 to Rome ; that as these communications became more intimate, the hopes of the Pretender increased ; that Ramsay attempted to corrupt the loyalty and fealty of Freemasonry in the Grand Lodge of Scotland, founded in 1736, and being unable so to do, conceived the scheme of assembling and more fully banding together, the faithful adherents of the banished royal family in the higher grades, and thus filling their private coffers ; that the Masonic Lodges of France were composed of Scotch conspirators and accomplices of the Jesuits, who had sunk so low they were ready to seize on the abundance of display and effect which were presented; not knowing that the "Masonic titles in our 'Inner East,' like the jewels on our breasts, are not cherished and worn by us for show or aggrandizement, but that they are suggestive of holy truths and self-perfecting duties."

Thory, in the Acta Latamorum, says that "Robert Bruce, King of Scotland, under the title of Robert I., created the order of St. Andrew of Chardon, after the battle of Bannockburn, which was fought June 24, 1314. To this order was afterward united that of Heredom, for the sake of the Scotch Masons, who formed a part of the 30,000 troops with whom he had fought an army of 100,000 Englishmen. King Robert reserved the title of Grand Master to himself and his successors forever, and founded the Royal Grand Lodge of Heredom at Kilwinning."

Dr. Oliver says "this Royal Order afterward confined itself solely to the two degrees of Heredom and Rosy-cross."

The following is perhaps the more reliable and probable history of the origin of the degrees of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite. At or about the period of the Masonic revival and excitement in the early part of the 18th century, there was felt a desire for a deeper research into the arcana of Freemasonry, and a thorough examination of the esoteric doctrines of the order. The more ardent and brilliant minds of Europe, determining to explore the Kabala, and enticed by so ennobling a study, resolved to establish a superior grade of Masonry, for the exclusive propagation of the mysteries as yet so little known to them, embracing the Historical, Philosophical and Chivalric. With this purpose in view, attempts were made to establish separate and distinct organizations, wherein these sublime truths might be revealed and cultivated. Nearly all these projects were ephemeral, and were outlived by their projectors, while the "Rite of Perfection," the germ of the organization of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite—based upon the pure principles of Masonry, and the elucidation of the occult mysteries, containing twenty-five degrees—gradually approached development.

Doubtless the course of the Chevalier Ramsay, in 1740, hastened the consummation of the systematising and embodying the degrees which had theretofore been for many years detached and unlocated.

Some authorities assert that this Rite of Perfection as an organization was founded in 1753, while others insist that in 1758 certain Masons, styling themselves "Sovereign Princes and Grand Officers of the Grand and Sovereign Lodge of St. John of Jerusalem," founded at Paris a body called "The Council of Emperors of the East and West." This council has been ordinarily known as the Rite of Perfection, and according to Thory, Ragon, Leveque, Vidal, Ferandie, Clavel, and others, consisted of twenty-five degrees; in 1759 it established a Council of Princes of the Royal Secret at Bordeaux, and from this period began to extend itself.

By the year 1761, the Lodges, Councils, Chapters and Consistories of the Rite had increased and extended throughout the continent of Europe; on the 27th of August of that year, Stephen Morin was commissioned Inspector-General for the New World by the Grand Consistory of Princes of the Royal Secret, convened at Paris, under the presidency of Chaillon de Joinville, Substitute-General of the Order.

When Inspector-General Morin arrived in America, in accordance with the powers vested by his patent, he appointed Moses Michael Hays a Deputy Inspector-General, with the authority to appoint others.

Deputy-Inspector Hays appointed Isaac Da Costa deputy Inspector-General for the State of South Carolina. After the death of Deputy Inspector-General Da Costa, Joseph Myers was appointed his successor.

On the 25th of October, 1762, the Grand Masonic Constitutions were finally ratified in Berlin, Prussia, and proclaimed throughout the world for the government of all Lodges, Councils, Chapters, Colleges and Consistories of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite over the surface of the two hemispheres. In the same year they were transmitted to Inspector-General Stephen Morin, who accepted them.

Deputy Inspector-General Hays appointed Solomon Bush Deputy Inspector-General for Pennsylvania, and Barend M. Spitzer for Georgia, which appointments were confirmed by a council of Inspectors convened in Philadelphia on the 15th of June, 1781.

On the 1st of May, 1786, the Constitutions of the Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General of the thirty-third and last degree, were alleged to have been granted at Berlin, Prussia.

No Supreme Councils of Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General were established anywhere in the world till after this date ; previously, Deputy Inspectors-General were charged with the powers and duties now vested in such Supreme councils and the grand bodies under them. In the new constitution this high power was conferred on a Supreme Council, of nine brethren in each nation, who possessed all the Masonic prerogatives in their own district, while two Supreme Councils were provided for in the United States of America with equal powers in their respective jurisdictions.

The first Supreme Council ever established under the new constitution of 1786, was that at Charleston, whose jurisdiction extended, constitutionally, over the whole of the United States, until they constituted the Northern Supreme Council. Then the Northern and Southern Jurisdictions were geographically defined.

On the 31st of May, 1801, the Supreme Council of the thirty-third degree for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, was opened with the high honors of Masonry, by Brothers John Mitchell and Frederick Dalcho, Sovereign Grand Inspectors-General; and in the course of the year the whole number of Grand Inspectors-General was completed agreeably to the Grand Constitutions. The other members of this council were Emanuel Da La Motta, Dr. J. Auld, Dr. James Moultrie, Abraham Alexander, M. C. Livy, Thomas B. Bowen, and J. De Liebau.

The Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction of the United States, happily progressing as it is at this date (1885), requires no special historic mention in detail. Space would not permit an examination of the trials of the Rite and the various questions that have arisen, all which are now harmoniously adjusted. It is sufficient for the purpose of this brief history to say, that in every respect it has realized all that the earliest founders of the Rite could have hoped for, and its present supporters desire.

On the 20th of December, 1767, Deputy Inspector-General Francken, appointed by Morin, opened and duly constituted a Grand Lodge of Perfection in Albany, State of New York, which is still actively at work.

In 1783, Deputy Inspector-General Hays established a Sublime Grand Lodge of Perfection in Charleston, South Carolina. On the 20th of February, 1788, a Grand Council of Princes of Jerusalem was opened in Charleston by Myers, Spitzer, and A. Forst, Deputy Inspector-General for Virginia.

In the year 1797, a chapter of Rose-Croix De H.: R.: D.: M.: Knight of the Eagle and Pelican, was instituted in the City of New York. In this year, King Solomon's Lodge of Perfection, at Holmes Hole, Martha's Vineyard, which had been established since 1783, by M. M. Hays and Peleg Clark, surrendered its jurisdiction over the three symbolic degrees to the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts. In 1802, warrants of constitution were issued for the opening of Sublime Lodges of Perfection in Savannah, Georgia, and many other parts of the United States.

About 1806-7, Consistories of Valiant and Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret were organized in the City of New York, and remained so until the formation of the Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction of the United States. Attention is again called to the year 1795, when Colonel John Mitchell was appointed by Spitzer a Deputy Inspector-General, in the place of Myers, who had removed; but he was restricted from acting until after Myer's death, which took place in the following year.

After the French Revolution of 1793, the mass of the people became atheists, and with them the great body of Masons; the Bible, as a general thing, was committed to the flames, and sublime Freemasonry fell into disuse; it was not until after the establishment of the Supreme Council at Charleston, in 1801, that the sublime system was revived in France, by the establishment of a Supreme Council at Paris, in 1804, by Count De Grasse, Grand Inspector-General, under authority from the Charleston Council. The Paris Supreme Council still exists.

The Grand Orient of France, which before this held an existence only as a "Symbolic Grand Lodge of Master Masons," immediately commenced her assumed jurisdiction over all the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite; hence a question, which to this day remains in abeyance.

In 1825 a special grant to Brothers Fowler, Bryant and McGill, was issued by the Supreme Council for the Southern Jurisdiction, for the establishment of a Supreme Council, thirty-third degree, in Dublin, Ireland.

Thus from time to time Supreme Councils have been established in almost every nation of the globe.

The following are extracts from the published report of the Southern Supreme Council, on the 4th day of December, 1802:

“On the 21st of January, 1802, a warrant of Constitution passed the seal of the Grand Council of Princes of Jerusalem, for the establishment of a Master Mark Mason’s Lodge, in the City of Charleston, South Carolina.” “Besides those degrees which are in regular succession, most of the Inspectors are in possession of a number of detached degrees, given in different parts of the world, and which they generally communicate, free of expense, to those brethren who are high enough to understand them, such as ‘Select Masons of twenty-seven, and the Royal Arch as given under the Constitution of Dublin, six degrees of Maconnerie d’Adoption, Compagnon Ecossais, le Maitre Ecossais, and le Grand Maitre Ecossais,’ etc., etc., making in the aggregate fifty-three degrees.”

As to the Mark and Past Master’s degrees, all authority over them was surrendered to the Royal Arch Chapters, at that time springing into existence. The Royal and Select Masters’ degrees were side or detached degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite. In the Southern States of the Union, the Supreme Council initiated, chartered, and fostered Councils of Royal and Select Masters; and as rapidly as they were self-sustaining, they became independent.

In this wise the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite has gradually thrown aside the detached degrees, and rarely confers any except the grades designated in the regular series. The Rite is in amity with Symbolic Grand Lodges, Grand Chapters, Councils of Royal and Select Master’s, and Grand Commanderies — recognizing no other bodies claiming to be Masonic.

Supreme Councils are the governing power over all Masonry in many nations. A Synoptical History of all the Supreme Councils that have ever existed, with the mode of formation in chronological order, by the Author of this volume, is published in the Proceedings, Supreme Council, Northern Jurisdiction, for 1881, pp. 123-150.

A Congress of the Representatives of eighteen Supreme Councils held at Lausanne, Switzerland, 22d September, 1875, recognized and proclaimed the Constitutions and Statutes of May 1st 1786, by whomsoever written and promulgated, and promised to maintain and defend with all their power, to preserve and cause to be observed and respected, the territorial jurisdiction of the 22 Supreme Councils named in their schedule, among which were those of the Northern and the Southern Jurisdiction of the U. S.

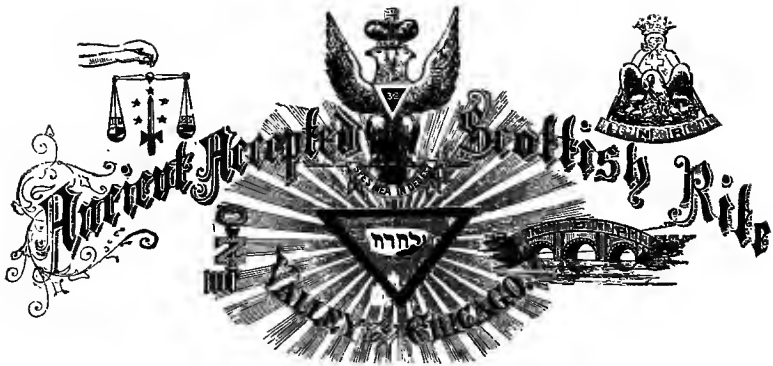

This compact still exists in all its integrity. The progress of these regular Supreme Councils is remarkable, and their future, without a shadow, is in the full tide of prosperity. The sublime teachings of the Rite find a ready response in every Masonic heart; fraternal associations binds man to his fellow and the profane world may receive a lesson of wisdom and humanity through a careful observance of its beautiful precepts.

HISTORICAL.

No recorded evidence has been discovered relating to the organization of bodies of the A. A. Rite in this Valley prior to that which is found in the Proceedings of the Supreme Council of the Northern Jurisdiction, held in the Valley of New York, May 1st and 2d, 1846, when the M. P. Sov. Grand Commander John James Joseph Gourgas, 33°, was authorized to issue a charter for an to Brothers W. F. Walker, Wm. Stuart, Chas. R. Starkweather, John R. Case, Wm. L. Brown, and Samuel Hoard, all of the City of Chicago, and at that time well known, highly esteemed citizens of the young Garden City. Beyond the fact that this charter was authorized, no records can be found as to whether or not the Lodge was ever constituted or entered upon their work.

A. D. 1856-1870.

The next authentic record, chronologically, that we have of the early days of the Rite in this Valley, is to be found in the report of Killian Henry Van Rensselaer, 33°, who reported to the Supreme Council of the Northern Jurisdiction of the U. S., in May, 1857, that he had visited Chicago in July, 1856, by order of the M. P. Sov. Grand Commander, and, being assisted by Ill. Prince Chas. R. Starkweather, 32°, he had duly initiated, elevated, and proclaimed the requisite number of worthy brethren to be Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, 32°; and further, that he had fully organized and constituted them in Lodge, Council, Chapter, and Consistory of Ineffable Sublime super-degrees and orders of Freemasonry, with Ill.: Prince Chas. R. Starkweather, 32°, as Grand Commander-in-Chief. Ill.: Brother Van Rensselær further reported that the bodies in Chicago were in possession of the necessary and appropriate robes, aprons and jewels, also suitable furniture for conferring the several grades and orders, equal if not superior to any other body in the two Jurisdictions.

Thus it will be seen that, even at this early date, nearly thirty-seven years ago, the A.: A.: Rite, as exemplified in the Valley of Chicago, occupied a creditable position and received honorable mention, in, at that time, far distant limits of the Northern Jurisdiction.

May 14, 1857, charters were granted by the Supreme Council to Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection, Illinois Council of Princes of Jerusalem, Gourgas Chapter of Rose Croix, H-R-D-M, and Occidental Sovereign Consistory, S.: P.: R.: S.: 32°, signed by

The above named bodies continued to flourish in the quiet and unostentatious manner customary to high grade Masonic bodies of that time and, under charge of such well known and distinguished members of the Rite as James V. Z. Blaney, Wiley M. Egan, Robert H. Foss, Vincent L. Hurlbut, Hosmer A. Johnson, James H. Miles, Henry C. Ranney, Charles R. Starkweather, Enoch B. Stevens, Otis H. Tiffany, and Wm. H. Turner among its ACTIVE membership, which, by law, was limited to 32 members, had in the year 1865, attained a membership of 82 Active, Emeritus and Honorary members.

The By-Laws provided that, of the Active members, at least 27 should be residents of the City of Chicago. As many honorary, or affiliated members might be admitted as might be deemed expedient, but they had only a right to a seat and voice in the Consistory, not being permitted to vote or hold office. All applicants, in those times, were elected by viva voce vote and any Active member had the right to make such remarks on the occasion as he might see proper.

As was the general rule in all Masonic bodies of those days, the hours for meeting was, during the winter months, at 7 o'clock, and in the summer at 7.30. Among the Emeritus and Honorary members at that time we find the names of many who have been distinguished in the various branches of the Order, notably among them are: Perry A. Armstrong, Geo. W. Deering, H. Stanley Goodwin, Wm. B. Herrick, Clinton Locke, Loyal L. Munn, Michael J. Noyes, Harman G. Reynolds and Pitkin C. Wright.

After the close of the war of the Rebellion in 1865, the bodies here, as elsewhere revived and began to rapidly increase, and the reunions and conventions for reception of postulants were distinguished as very notable occasions in the history of Masonic affairs of the times.

Usually under the immediate supervision of that able, famous and superior ritualist and Masonic workman, Illustrious Brother, Killian H. Van Rensselær 33°, they afforded much enjoyment for the members and great pleasure and satisfaction to the Candidates. So much so was this the case that it is hard to make the older brethren who received the degrees at the hands of Brother Van Rensselær and his efficient assistants, (Ranney, Egan, Brower, Johnson, Blaney, E. B. Stevens et al), believe that we have improved upon their work.

Unfortunately all the records of these bodies were destroyed in the great fire of 1871 and the memory of the older members is about all we have to furnish matter for this sketch.

So far as it can be ascertained, the original members, admitted by Bro. Van Rensselær at the time of the organization in 1856, were: J. V. Z. Blaney, George W. Deering, James E. Dalliba, Robert H. Foss, Wm. B. Herrick, E. J. Higgins, Hosmer A. Johnson, Wm. W. Mitchell, Harman G. Reynolds, Henry C. Ranney, Reuben Taylor and Charles R. Starkweather. The latter having received the degrees at a previous date.

Of these, three are living, viz.: James E. Dalliba, Robert H. Foss and Henry C. Ranney, and but one, Brother Foss, is a member of this Consistory. Most of them were remarkable men and the names of several of them have been renowned in the pages of Masonic history in this and other jurisdictions.

As time rolled on the Grand Consistory of Illinois was organized by authority received from the Supreme Council at New York, with Walter Augustus Stevens, 33°, as Grand Commander-in-Chief. November 10, 1866, this Illustrious Prince, at the present time one of the Sovereign Grand Inspectors General in this State, granted his letters of dispensation to Chicago Lodge of Perfection, No. 1. There were afterward formed, Chicago Council Princes of Jerusalem, Cœur de Leon Chapter of Rose Croix H-R-D-M, and Chicago Consistory. 32°, S.: P.: R.: S.:

These organizations under the direction of such active workers as Henry S. Austin, A. C. Millard, J. Ward Ellis, and John D. M. Carr, aided by Brothers Walter A. Stevens, James B. Bradwell, Warren G. Purdy, David R. Crego, Geo. H. Laflin, Edward Goodale and others at once gave a new impetus to the Rite.

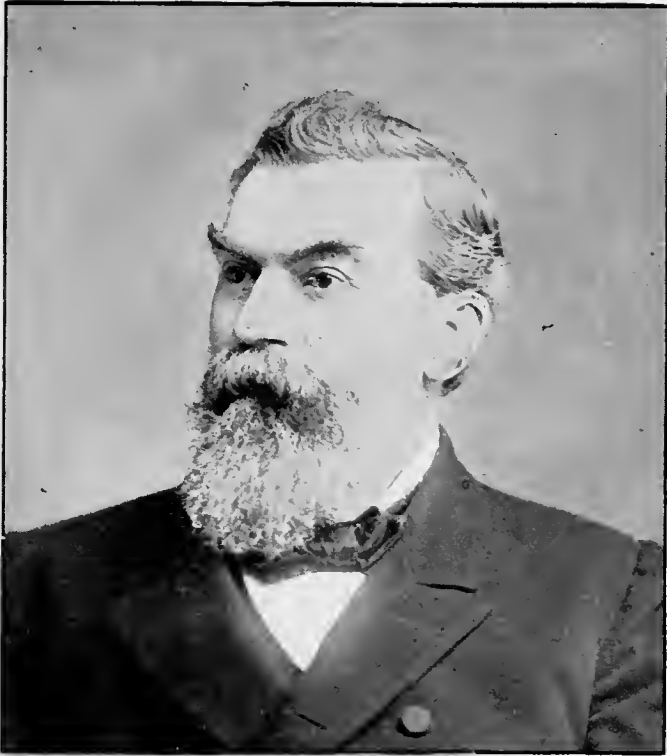

They adopted a new plan for carrying on the work, that of meeting every week and conferring one or more of the degrees at each meeting. This plan proved so successful that it has been continued in vogue to the present time. The Consistory body also, adopted the custom of uniforming the members and parading upon all proper occasions. This practice placed the Rite immediately before the Masonic public, and in contrast with other uniformed Knightly bodies of Masonic character. This action at first provoked considerable criticism and much opposition but after twenty-five years continuance I cannot see that it has done much, if any harm, and to those familiar with the affairs of the Consistory in Chicago, there is the best evidence that it has proved a benefit in many ways. The writer was one of its strongest opponents in the start but is of the opinion now, that in large cities like ours, a uniformed Consistory has its proper place for usefulness among the bodies of the high grades.

Both sets of bodies in this valley continued to prosper as did the others throughout the state, and in 1870 there was in Illinois, eight sets of bodies of the Rite, with a membership of 836, being at that time, the largest number reported in any state under the jurisdiction of the Supreme Council.

In 1869 the Supreme Council adopted the following :

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That the Supreme Council hereby recommends to the Consistories of the various states under its jurisdiction, as far as practicable, to consolidate their Bodies into one, and where it is desirable that more than one

The question of consolidation had received considerable attention, and study on the part of those who were interested in the future welfare and prosperity of the Rite, before the above mentioned action of the Supreme Council. This was specially the case in this city, where a considerable feeling of animosity had sprung up between the members of the two Consistories, one of which was conferring the degrees on Knights Templar only and the other continued to adhere to the old plan of only requiring the candidate to be a M. M. To such an extent had this feeling grown that it seemed to many of us, to endanger the peace, harmony and future growth of the Rite in this Valley.

For the purpose of preserving the record of and the result of the efforts of those most active in accomplishing one of the greatest and most momentous events in the history of these bodies, the following is inserted here, as taken from the report to the Supreme Council in 1871, by our ill. Deputy Bro. Vincent L. Hurlbut.

ILLINOIS,

SPECIAL COUNCIL OF DELIBERATION,

ON

THE STATE OF THE RITE IN CHICAGO.

Held January 27th, 1871.

To the Glory of the Grand Architect of the Universe:

The presiding officers of the several Bodies of the A.: & A.: Rite in the Valley of Chicago, held a Council of Deliberation at the call of the Deputy for Illinois, at his office in Chicago, on Friday evening, January 27th, 1871, at 8 o'clock. There were present:

ILL.: BRO.: VINCENT L. HURLBUT, 33° Deputy for Illinois,

CHICAGO CONSISTORY AND CO-ORDINATE BODIES.

- HENRY C. RANNEY, 33° ..... M.: W.: and P.: M.:
- AMMI M. BENNETT, 32° ..... S.: P.: G.: M.:
- THEO. T. GURNEY, 32° ..... T.: P.: G.: M.:
- H. N. HURLBUT, 32°
- CHARLES H. BROWER, 33°

Vincent L. Hurlbut, 33°, in the chair, and Charles H. Brower, 33°, Secretary.

The Ill.: Deputy stated the object of the Conference, and after due consultation with each other for the greater prosperity and glory of the Rite in this City, and of devising some equitable plan to consolidate the several bodies of the A.: & A.: Rite in this City, with perfect harmony and fraternal feeling, and for the purpose of establishing a basis upon which to accomplish the same, it was, on motion of Ill.: Bro.: Henry C. Ranney, 33°, unanimously.

Resolved, That the presiding officers of the four Bodies working under the authority of Occidental and Chicago Consistories of the A.: & A.: Rite in the Valley of Chicago, together with Ill.: Bro.: Vincent L. Hurlbut, 33°, Deputy for Illinois, be a Committee to propose terms of union between the several Bodies who shall report at a future called meeting of this Council, the Thirty-thirds and heads of the several Bodies of the Rite, and if the terms prove satisfactory, the deputy of the district shall request the presiding officers to call meetings of the members of their respective Bodies to act upon the proposition then submitted.

For the purpose of furthering a plan of consolidation, it was on motion of Gilbert R. Smith, 33°, unanimously.

Resolved, That a Sub-Committee be appointed to perfect a plan of consolidation, and report at a future called meeting of this Council."

By and with the consent of the whole, and by nominations from each Body, the following were elected as such Sub-Committee: Reuben Cleveland, 32°, and Gilbert W. Barnard, 32°, on the part of Chicago Consistory, and Henry C. Ranney, 33°, and Theodore T. Gurney, 32°, on the part of Occidental Consistory.

At an adjourned meeting of the Council in the matter of Consolidation of the several Bodies of the A.: & A.: Rite in the Valley of Chicago, called by the Ill.: Deputy Vincent L. Hurlbut, 33°, at his office, pursuant to agreement and notification, on Friday evening, February 3d, 1871, at eight o'clock P. M., there were present:

change. It appears desirable that there should be but one Consistory in this City, and that a union of the two now in existence should be made immediately, and this not only applies to the Consistory, but to the Chapter, Council and Lodge, Subordinate and Co-ordinate, to and with the same.

It is not considered proper or necessary that both Bodies should give up their Charters, and we have arrived at the conclusion that this union can be best served in the interest of the Rite, by the younger Bodies consolidating with the older

Your Committee would recommend that a committee be appointed from each Consistory, or other Body, of the rank of 32°, which Committee shall proceed to formulate a plan of union, and in case they disagree shall refer all points of disagreement to one, or not exceeding three arbiters, of the rank of 33°, in or out of this District, who shall decide the terms of consolidation on the subject when such disagreement has risen.

Your committee would, therefore, report the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is for the best interests of the A. & A. Rite that the Consistories, Chapters, Councils and Lodges, in this city be consolidated, and prompt and decided action be taken to insure a vigorous union of these several Bodies, thereby placing the Rite in this city on a firmer and uncompromising foundation.

Resolved, That this Committee, realizing the strength which will accrue to the A. & A. Rite, and the greater unity of feeling and interest in its prosperity which must result from the union of all these bodies, earnestly request the deputy of the district to call duly notified meetings of the respective Bodies, and lay before them the subject of union;

Resolved, That it is expedient for any of the Bodies of the same grade to unite without awaiting the union of the Bodies of any other grade;

Resolved, That among the terms of union, should be the agreement that each and every body should pay its own liabilities, if it has any; that all the members of the Body or Bodies surrendering its charter or charters, (such members being in good standing) shall be admitted into the surviving body without fee; that the Honorary Members and Past Officers shall retain their present position, rank, title, and honors; that the regalia, paraphernalia and properties of the bodies shall become the property of the surviving Body. and that immediately after the union the officers of the surviving Body or Bodies shall resign, and the Committee of Conference be requested to nominate a list of officers to be elected by the consolidated Body or Bodies;

Resolved, That it is essential to the prosperity of the A. & A. Rite, that there should be but one Consistory, Chapter, Council and Lodge in this city, and the Committee heartily recommend the union of Chicago Consistory with Occidental Consistory, Cœur De Leon Sovereign Chapter with Gourgas Chapter; Chicago Council with Illinois Council; Chicago Lodge with Van Rensselaer Lodge, and that on the union of these respective Bodies an application be made immediately to the Supreme Council for a change of the name of Oc-

COMMUNICATION AND ORDERS.

From the Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois.

Dated CHICAGO, February 7, 1871.

To the T.: P.: Grand Master. Wardens and Brethren of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection—GREETING.

At the session of the Supreme Council. June 19, 1869, a resolution was adopted recommending to the Consistories of the various states under its jurisdiction as far as practicable, to consolidate their Bodies into one, thus forming one Consistory for each State. Feeling that the unfortunate differences existing between the Bodies here are gradually but surely wearing away, and believing that it is for the best interest of the Rite in this city, at least, to unite their strength and influence by consolidating the two Consistories and their sub or co-ordinate Bodies, we called a council of deliberation of the Thirty-thirds and chiefs of the several Bodies of the A.: & A.: Rite, at our office, Friday evening, January 27, 1871, to consider the feasibility of a union of the same, and the basis upon which it could be effected:

Such a train of unfortunate circumstances and influences had conspired to widen the breach and discourage this object that we had many fears as to our ability to reorganize upon a united basis, harmonious in action, for substantial work and an ultimately grand success. But we were most agreeably disappointed; for instead of personal ambition interposing opposition to this grand object the good of the Rite has been the motive that has overcome all such obstacles, and thus far we are working unitedly and harmoniously. The signs are every way most favorable and encouraging for the consummation of so desirable an end; for at an adjourned meeting of the Council of Deliberation held at our office Friday evening, February 3, 1871, the accompanying preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, the second of which earnestly request the Deputy of the District to call duly notified meetings of the respective Bodies, and lay before them the subject of union for their consideration and action.

GENERAL ORDERS. NO. 1.

ILL.: REUBEN CLEVELAND, 32°.

T.: P.: Grand Master of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection:

In accordance with the earnest request of the Council of Deliberation, I hereby order that you call a notified meeting of the officers and members of your Lodge, on Friday evening, February 17, 1871, to take action upon the question of uniting the two Lodges of Perfection in this City, and the adoption or rejection of the preamble and resolutions issuing from the Council of Deliberation, which you will cause to be read, and report to me the action taken immediately thereafter.

VINCENT L. HURLBUT, 33°,

Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois.

The Ill.: Deputy also submitted the following communication, relative to the mode of proceeding in cases of consolidation, as adopted by the Supreme Council.

“The Body which is to cease to exist must, by a majority vote of the members at a notified meeting for the purpose, vote to surrender their Charter and to assent to unite themselves with the Body whose existence is to continue. The latter named body must by a majority vote decide to receive all the members of the other Body.” In consideration of this proposition, I beg you will rise above all personal feelings, draw the veil over the past, and thus, unprejudiced, work for the best good of the Rite for the future. Actuated by this feeling, and the principles of universal love and toleration, there need be no clashing of opinions, and the end is not doubtful.

Courteously yours,

VINCENT L. HURLBUT, 33°.

Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois.

It is here especially noted, that the communication and order as the foregoing, with the proper nomenclature, was addressed to all the Bodies sub and co-ordinate with Occidental and Chicago Consistories in this City.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

A meeting of the Committee of Conference was held on Thursday evening, March 9th, 1871. There were present:—

HENRY C. RANNEY, 33°	}	In behalf of Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection.
CHARLES H. BROWER, 33°
SAMUEL BROWN, 32°
REUBEN CLEVELAND, 32°	}	In behalf of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection.
GILBERT W. BARNARD, 32°
DANIEL J. AVERY, 32°

After a full and frank discussion the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The Council of Deliberation of the A.: & A.: Rite, held in Chicago, February 3d, 1871, recommended a union of the Bodies Subordinate and Coordinate with the same; and

Whereas, The recommendations of the Council have been adopted by a majority of Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection, at a regular notified meeting; and

Whereas, Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection has also adopted the recommendations of the aforesaid Council, and by their action agree to surrender their Charter to the Ill.: Deputy of the District; and

Whereas, Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection, in accordance with the recommendations of said Council, hereby agree to receive all Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Masons into its membership (if in good standing in their Sister Lodge) without fee or other obstructions; therefore,

Resolved, That each of the Lodges of Perfection here represented, pay their own liabilities.

Resolved, That Ill.: Brothers Theodore T. Gurney, 32°, and Reuben Cleveland, 32°, are hereby appointed a Committee, to attend to all financial matters of Van Rensselæx and Chicago Lodges of Perfection after the union, with full power to settle the same.

Resolved, That the Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection shall surrender to Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection, all its funds, regalia, paraphernalia, and other property of which it may be possessed, and that the funds and property of both Bodies then stand in a position of property belonging to all the members of Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection, as the surviving Body.

Resolved, That all Past Officers and Honorary Members of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection shall retain all their rights, rank, titles and privileges in the Body to which they unite themselves, and be classed as Past Officers or Honorary Members, as the case may be, in Van Rensselæx Grand Lodge of Perfection, the register of their standing being determined by the time to which they were elected to such honorary dignity on their retirement from office.

Resolved, That on the call of the Ill.: Deputy of the District, the officers and members of the two Lodges of Perfection shall meet in their respective halls, and complete such business as may properly come before them, and that the Thrice Potent Grand Master of Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection, shall notify the Thrice Potent Grand Master of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection, that he is in readiness to receive and welcome them into membership on report of the Ill.: Deputy, that the Charter of said last named lodge of Perfection has been duly surrendered to him.

Resolved, That immediately after the aforesaid union, the officers of both Bodies shall resign, and with the consent of the Ill.: Deputy, the united Body, to be known and recognized as Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection, shall proceed to fill the vacancies and to complete the business for which they were raised. The Committee of Conference recommend that, the Thrice Potent Grand Master be elected from Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection, and the balance of the officers alternately from the two Bodies.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands, this ninth day of March, A. D. 1871.

CHICAGO, March 24, 1871. }

To Ill.: Reuben Cleveland, 32°, T.: P.: G.: M.: of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection, Officers and Members—

GREETING:

To anticipate and thus prevent unnecessary discussion, misunderstanding and embarrassment, I would recommend that, before the formal union of Chicago and Van Rensselær Grand Lodges of Perfection, you follow the precedent established by the late Supreme Councils, prior to their union, for the election of officers; that is, let each Body elect the officers to fill the several offices to which it is entitled by the terms of the union, and immediately thereafter transmit the list thereof to the other body for ratification.

Believing that every well-wisher of this union would very much dislike to dictate to either Body whom they shall elect to said positions, much less for one Body to dictate to the other, I have thus addressed the T.: P.: Grand Masters, officers and members of each Body, that there need not be even the semblance of such a disposition on the part of the members of either Body.

Reposing the fullest confidence in your favorable consideration.

I am, Courteously yours,

The foregoing communication, under the proper nomenclature, was addressed to all the Bodies, sub and co-ordinate with Occidental and Chicago Consistories in this city.

J. B. SLICHTER, 32°,
Grand Secretary.

In accordance with General Order No. 2, (current series), both Lodges of Perfection met on Friday evening, March 24th, at their respective halls. Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection having complied with the terms of union, and surrendered its charter to the Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois, a full list of names of members of Chicago Grand Lodge of Perfection was presented and read, and were received in full membership of Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection and there entered upon its rolls.

The officers of Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection, in accordance with the terms of union, resigned their several stations. The Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois took the East, when the following officers (who having been duly elected and chosen as per terms of Conference Committee) were presented for installation. The Ill.: Deputy for Illinois, assisted by Ill.: Bro.: Henry C. Ranney, 33<sup>o</sup>, as Grand Marshall and Ill.: Bro.: Gilbert R. Smith, 33<sup>o</sup>, to assist in the investiture, proceeded to install the following officers of

After installation and after a few congratulatory remarks by the T.: P.: G.: M.:, the following addresses were delivered and were ordered to be spread upon the minutes of Van Rensselær Grand Lodge of Perfection.

ADDRESS OF ILL.: THEODORE T. GURNEY, 32°.

On retiring from office at the time of Union of the two Lodges of Perfection.

BRETHREN:—This is a time for rejoicing. None feel the inspiration of the occasion more than myself. For years I have believed that these two Bodies could not long remain apart. This action is for prosperity, and those who come after us will render thanks for the spirit which actuated this assembly. If in time to come the sight grows dim with age, the body yielding to the cares and infirmities of life, and the careworn mind seeking the pleasant memories of the past, we can always look back to this consummation as one of the bright spots in the dusty and broken pathway of our pilgrimage, with the consciousness of having added our testimony to the worth of Masonry, by giving this Union our earnest and cordial support. This happy fraterniation, my brethren, has not been accomplished without a struggle. We who

A few remain unreconciled; but in the spirit of a true, fraternal manhood, are disposed to suspend further judgment and be guided by results. Blot from your recollections, therefore, unguarded expressions, incident to earnest and excited debate; give no place to the prejudices and unpleasant reminiscences of the past, but, on the contrary, in the love we have been taught to cherish for the household of the faithful, and the brotherhood of our race, we will emulate each other in a generous forgetfulness of everything that may have, for the time being, placed a barrier to the full fruition of Masonic charity.

I feel the utmost confidence in a glorious future for the united Body. Its example will be felt, and, I hope, acted upon, throughout our State.

ADDRESS OF THE ILL. DEPUTY OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL.

To the Members of Van Rensselaer Lodge of Perfection.

No language my feeble tongue can command could give adequate expression to the feelings that possess me. No words can express the regret and sorrow with which I have watched dissensions between those bound together by the most sacred ties and obligations—alienations between hearts that ought to beat as one in generous confidence and fraternal affection.

For all this past I have no censure, only regrets, blended with thankfulness that it is gone, thank God! beyond recall; so I turn with a shudder from that chilling night of conflict to the flush, the warmth, the gladness of this new dawn of reconciliation and peace. Let no cloud of resentment mar the sky or dim the brightness of this hour. Let it all be buried. It was but the lovers quarrel ending in a better understanding and a more cordial and generous appreciation, a more tender and constant embrace. I cannot tell you how much I thank you for your manly aid in this work of reconciliation, crowned at last with success. Grandly have you illustrated the maxim. "It is human to err but God-like to forgive." We have all come to feel that human nature, at best is weak and frail—that human passions are infirm—that human judgment is fallible—that in our sincerest endeavors we are liable to err—that when we have done all and the best we could we shall still need both human and divine forbearance and charity, and so with a sense of common imperfection and dependence, we have vowed to forgive as we would be forgiven, and henceforth have one purpose, one aim, one life of manly effort to achieve a common good by unitedly working for the best interest of the beloved Rite.

I feel that I can rely upon your hearty co-operation to finish the work so well begun, and make this reconciliation complete; and if there should be any little details to perfect the union yet to be considered, you will do your duty as brothers in the most cordial manner and with a generous forgetfulness of all past differences. I cannot close these expressions of congratulations without adding a word of fraternal advice and warning, suggested by the past. In the settlement of the difference which have unhappily divided us, we are not doing a work demanded by individual justice only but are serving a grand and glorious cause, which is consecrated by oft-repeated vows, by many a solemn pledge, by many a holy tie, many sacred memories of other scenes and other times, by solemn thought and recollections of those who have toiled and triumphed with us, but whose presence we shall know no more on earth.

Not for us alone is this grasp of reconciling hands across the gulf of separation, but for the good name of Freemasonry, which to us is so dear, and of which we are pre-eminently the vindicators and defenders. We stand on the pledges of its fidelity and honor, as the highest fruitage of its multiform and elaborate designs, and its accumulated wisdom and experience.

Let this union be real and permanent, and all grades of Masonry will be quickened by a new impulse, will be inspired by a new courage and zeal. Let this union be real, and the combined ability and experience it will command will give this Rite a character and influence for incalculable good.

And now, my brothers, let this sad experience, of which we see the end, furnish us a warning for all time to come. Let it teach us how easily friends may be alienated by differences even slight at first, but aggravated and increased by personal wilfulness, conceit, or obstinacy, until they become impassible barriers. Slight misunderstandings have often separated the best of friends, producing life-long estrangement and bitterness where there should have been constant regard. Hence permanent alienations that blight the fairest hopes of life produces so much sorrow, making the dearest memory a constant pang, might have been healed if passion and resentment had been laid aside, and when the first misunderstanding arose had there been an eagerness to meet and reconcile, instead of going apart to brood over real or fancied wrongs, until a fearful harvest of suspicion and resentment had overshadowed the soul.

Let us learn to be considerate and generous, never grow apart, but always grow together — so near to each other that there shall be no room for the smallest devil to thrust his smallest weapon between us.

Once more I thank you for this hour, this reconciliation, which your charity and good will alone have made possible, asking you to bury all the past which should not live, and go hand in hand with me to the noble labors and triumphs of the future, trusting that no cloud shall ever again arise to dim the sky or chill the air of our blended hopes and mutual charity, and thus forevermore keep the chain bright that binds our hearts together in fraternal embrace.

VINCENT L. HURLBUT.

The retiring officer, the M.: W.: and P.: M.: Henry C. Ranney, 33<sup>o</sup>, delivered the following address:

Before resigning my gavel to the Ill.: Deputy, I shall detain you but a few moments. To-night is consummated the union of our Rose Croix Chapters, and the reception of the members of Cœur de-Leon Sovereign Chapter into one strong and united Body. It is well known to all of you, that no one was more bitterly opposed to the establishment of the Bodies known as the "Chicago Bodies," but time has blotted out these feelings, and to-day no one is more strongly in favor of union and consolidation than myself. My Brothers, it was a very happy augury for the good work we are now completing, that these Chapters were the first to vote for a union, and thus most beautifully exemplified that lesson of Charity or Love, the greatest of all virtues, and a distinguishing characteristic of this degree. And now, on Holy Thursday, we can say, in the language of our ritual, "Consummatumest."

It was a happy thought on the part of our Ill.: Deputy, that our union should be fixed for this night, above all others, for it is our annual election and sacred feast day—a feast to be partaken of in quietness and in the sanctity of our council chamber—a feast instituted by our blessed Lord himself, on this day that we commemorate, and one that has been of great and endless comfort to millions of our race.

Remember what this Last Supper was followed by, and you can see why we give it special sanctity. With permission of your Most Wise elect, I shall complete the works of this union with the Ceremony of the Table—eating and drinking together, as a sacred pledge of union. Brothers, my term of office has now expired; and, thanking you all for many courtesies in the past, and hoping all things we have done have been done for and will redound to the glory of the A.: & A.: Rite. I conclude in these old familiar words of the Royal Psalmist:

"Behold how good and how pleasant a thing it is for Brethren to dwell together in unity. It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard which went down to the skirts of his garments; like the dew of Hermon, that descended upon the mountain of Zion, for there the Lord commanded a blessing even life for evermore."

In pursuance to the foregoing order from the Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois, both Consistories of S.: P.: R.: S.: met on Thursday evening, April 27, 1871.

Chicago Consistory having complied with the terms of union and surrendered its Charter to the Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois, and presented a full list of the names of members of Chicago Consistory, which was read and received in full membership of Occidental Sovereign Consistory, and their names recorded and entered upon its rolls, in absence of the Ill.: Deputy, Vincent L. Hurlbut, 33<sup>o</sup>, Ill.: Bro.: Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, Sov.: G.: Ins.: G.: of the Supreme Council for the N.: M.: J.: of the U. S. A., took the Grand East and read the following communication:

CHICAGO, April 2<sup>d</sup>, 1871.

To all Whom it may concern—GREETING:

Reposing the fullest confidence in the discretion, ability and wisdom of Ill.: Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, Sov.: G.: I.: G.: of the Supreme Council for the N.: M.: J.: of the U. S. A., we hereby authorize and empower him to receive the Charter, books and records of Chicago Consistory, and to discharge and perform all duties that would appertain to us, as Deputy of Illinois, in effecting the formal union of Occidental and Chicago Consistories of this city, as per recommendations of the joint Committee of Conference appointed by each of said Bodies respectively. And we do hereby invest said Ill.: Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, with the full power with which we are possessed as Ill.: Deputy for Illinois, during our absence.

Given under our hand and seal, hereunto affixed, at the Orient aforesaid near the B.: B.: and under the C.: C.:, the 20th day of the Hebrew month Nisan, A.: M.: 5631, corresponding with the 20th day of April, V.: E.:, 1871.

VINCENT L. HURLBUT, 33°,

[SEAL.]

Deputy of Supreme Council for Illinois.

Therefore, in accordance with the terms of union (the Ill.: Deputy Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, occupying the Grand East), the officers of Occidental Consistory resigned their several stations, when the Ill.: Deputy ordered a new election of officers, when it was found that the following officers were unanimously elected.

Ill.: HENRY C. RANNEY, 33° ..... Commander-in-Chief.
 Ill.: WARREN G. PURDY, 32° ..... 1st Lieut.: Com.:
 Ill.: FRED A. WHEELER, 32° ..... 2d Lieut.: Com.:
 Ill.: EDWARD J. HILL, 32° ..... Gr.: M.: of State.
 Ill.: JAMES H. MILES, 32° ..... Gr.: Chancellor.
 Ill.: JACOB B. SLICHTER, 32° ..... Gr.: Secretary.
 Ill.: EUGENE B. MYERS, 33° ..... Gr.: Treasurer.
 Ill.: EVERETT ST. JOHN, 32° ..... Gr.: Ar.: and Eng.:
 Ill.: HORATIO N. HURLBUT, 32° ..... Gr.: Hospitaller.
 Ill.: HENRY H. POND, 32° ..... Gr.: M.: of C.:
 Ill.: TRACY T. OVIATT, 32° ..... Gr.: Standard Bearer.
 Ill.: JOSEPH GALLAGHER, 32° ..... Gr.: Capt.: of Guard.
 Ill.: LOCKWOOD K. OSBORNE, 32° ..... Gr.: Sentinel.

Ill.: Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, acting for the Ill.: Deputy of the Supreme Council for Illinois, and assisted by Ill.: Gilbert R. Smith, 33°, and Charles H. Brower, 30°, regularly installed the officers elect of Occidental Consistory.

Ill.: Bro.: Johnson, in behalf of the Deputy of the District, congratulated the Brethren upon the accomplishment of the work of consolidation. The theory of Masonic Unity was thus in fact realized. Whatever differences may have heretofore existed in thought or feeling; whatever discrepancy in work or usage, will, under the influence of brotherly love and common interests, entirely disappear. He trusted that henceforth among us all, there will be found only that generous rivalry of who can best work and best agree. Time, that heals so many wounds, that obliterates so many scars, that ought to bring such added strength and such increased wisdom, will do for us what it has done for others.

He urged the Brethren, leaving those things that are behind, to press forward until all hoped for good, pursued with unfaltering faith, shall become matter of glad fruition; while "Charity, fairest and favorite maid of light," shall guide us through this troublesome world to that peaceful Asylum for which the labors of time should constitute a preparation.

J. B. SLICHTER, 32°,

Grand Secretary.

Very naturally, the consolidation of the Bodies in this valley did not entirely allay the feelings existing among the members and, the opportunity afforded by the terms of the agreement, that, any one not desiring to become a member of the united bodies, might be dimitted, was taken advantage of by a large number and was the cause of reducing the membership very materially.

This did not, however, retard the good results anticipated by those who had been urgent in promoting the union, for the new officers continued the custom already adopted in the "Chicago Bodies," (holding meetings each week) and a rapid development of the beauties of the degrees was at once began and were continued with the best possible prospects for the future, when we were suddenly assailed by that fearful calamity, the great fire of October 9th, 1871.

Then all was chaos and everything was swept away, apartments, paraphernalia, charters, books, relics and uniforms of the Princes.

Of the great loss that befel our city in 1871, and in which these bodies suffered, alike with all others situated in the "burnt district;" I can find no better way to sum it up than to again turn to the report of our active, eloquent and energetic Deputy, Ill.: Brother Vincent L. Hurlbut, which he made to the Council of Deliberation in 1872, as follows:

ADDRESS OF THE ILL.: DEPUTY.

Ill.: Brethren :

By the kindness and courtesy of Cleveland Lodge, A. F. & A. M., we meet in their Hall, to exchange fraternal greetings, and discharge duties that demand our care and attention as a Council of Deliberation. I need not remind you that the conditions under which we last assembled, in this capacity, are sadly changed. Then we could proudly welcome you to our city, as the scene of unexampled prosperity and progress—the marvel of all the centuries. To-day we have little to exhibit but lengthened miles of desolation. Then we could offer accommodations and hospitalities, most inviting and sumptuous; to-day we can only ask you to partake of homely fare, in the crowded and unpretending retreats which misfortune gladly accepted as a shelter from the pitiless storms. Then we assembled in the inner courts of our Temple, made sacred by long and undisturbed possession, and by thronging memories of past associations, by all the hallowed memorials which had been gathered. To-day we have nothing left but the memory; the memorials have vanished, the sacred vessels and vestments have been seized by a remorseless foe whose ear is deaf to every prayer for restoration; our Temple is laid low; not one stone upon another that has not been thrown down.

But this terrible visitation by fire, which rendered so many of our brethren homeless and penniless; which destroyed the halls and paraphernalia of the several bodies of our Rite in this city, was not wholly a calamity; it had its blessed compensations. Sad, indeed, if we have not learned some useful lessons in passing through such an ordeal.

In speaking for myself I am sure I speak for all the brethren who reside in this city, when I gratefully recognize the chastening hand which has wounded only to heal; to arouse a manlier courage; to unfold neglected energy; to moderate and chasten ambition; to rebuke improvidence and recklessness; to develop a prudent care and a wise precaution.

Nor is this all or the best of the blessings that have ripened in the footsteps of trials. It was worth more than any material rule can measure to see so vast a flame kindled upon the neglected altars of a common brotherhood. The great fire did something more and better than to sweep away our wealth and the fairest work of our hands. It burned up whole mountains of the dross of worldly selfishness; it melted the icy barriers that divide sects and parties; it dissolved all jealousies and envyings, and hatreds, and left the unperverted soul free to assert its holiest tendencies and pour out a generous tide of Godlike charities. God, who made a way for the lightning of the thunder, sent His quickest servant of His will to tell to the dwellers of all the land from ocean to ocean, and other millions across the seas, the story of our peril and our need, and every trembling wire bore back the messages of a World's unbounded sympathy, and every whitening sail and every panting, fiery steed hastened to bring a World's unstinted measure of relief.

The ready sympathy expressed, and the prompt and generous aid afforded by both the Northern and Southern Jurisdictions, demand of us a grateful recognition.

As soon as the tidings of our great calamity reached Most Puissant Josiah H. Drummond, 33°, he issued a brief but comprehensive circular to the bodies of the Rite in the N. M. Jurisdiction, to send immediate aid to the distressed sufferers here, to which most generous response was given.

The Supreme council expressed unbounded sorrow for our affliction, remitted all dues remaining unpaid to date, and contributed $1,300 for the relief of the various bodies of the Rite in this city, as follows: $500 to Oriental Consistory; $200 to Gourgas Chapter Rose X; and $300 each to Chicago Council of Pr.: of Jerusalem and Van Rensselær Gr.: Lodge of Perfection.

Equally prompt was the action of Ill.: Bro. Albert Pike, 33°, Most P.: Sov. Gr.: Commander of the Southern Sup.: Council, who issued an Encyclical letter to all the bodies in his jurisdiction, speaking from his great loving soul touching words of appeal and sympathy; contributing of his own limited means $25 to our relief.

To give you an idea how the bodies in this city, although completely broken up and paralyzed by the terrible disaster of the 8th of October last, proceeded to the work of re-edification, I copy the minutes of a meeting held at my office in the month following:

" A meeting of the Chiefs of the A. & A. Rite in Chicago, was held at the office of the Deputy of the District of Illinois, on the 16th day of the Hebrew month Kislev, A. M.: 5632, corresponding with the 29th day of November, V. E.: 1871, at 8 P. M., for the purpose of taking action in the matter of re-organization of the several bodies of the Rite; there being present:

Ill.: Bro.: V. L. Hurlbut, 33°, Deputy of Illinois.

" " Chas. H. Brower, 33°, D.: P.: Gr.: M.: Van Rensselær Gr.: L.: Per.: 14°.

Ill.: Bro.: V. L. Hurlbut was appointed Chairman, and Ill.: Bro.: C. H. Brower, Secretary.

Ill.: Bro.: H. C. Ranney offered the following resolutions, and after a full discussion, they were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, As the sense of the Presiding Officers of the A. & A. Rite bodies, all being present, that it is most desirable to re-organize the several bodies as soon as possible.

Resolved, That as soon as we can, we should hold our meetings on the nights of the regular meetings, as provided for by the By-Laws.

Resolved, That in the absence of work at the regular meetings of the several bodies, some Brother be requested to prepare a lecture or essay appertaining to the A. & A. Rite.

Resolved, That we recommend to our several bodies the appointment of committees, with power to act, to procure permanent quarters on the "South Side" of the city, and as near our old quarters as possible.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this meeting furnish to the several bodies of the A. & A. Rite of Chicago, a copy of the foregoing Resolutions, so that the committees on reconstruction may be appointed, and the work of re-organization go on as speedily as possible.

CHAS. HOMAN BROWER, 33°,

Secretary.

The plan worked well. The Brethren were called together, and essays of decided merit and interest were read by various members of the bodies, and although the facilities for work were very limited—with no paraphernalia—yet, by a little improvising, and no little energy, they were soon in a creditable working condition.

One object I have in reading these Resolutions, is to commend to those bodies in this District who may have little work to do, like action, and thereby, to not only keep alive, but if possible, to kindle anew and increase the interest, unity and zeal of the Brethren in the good work, by presenting and keeping before their minds, in perennial freshness, its history, doctrines and morals."

In this same address I find some other matters which I consider worthy of presenting here.

"The Council will learn, with unqualified satisfaction, that the recommendation for consolidation of the various bodies of the Rite is daily growing in favor with the Brethren of this District, as they see its spirit and aim, as well as its practical results; and that the example set by the bodies of the Rite in this city is being slowly but surely followed by the bodies of the Rite throughout the District.

I have received official notice that Monmouth Consistory, and Monmouth Chapter of Rose Croix have voted to consolidate with Oriental Consistory and Gourgas Chapter, of this city. I also received notice, on May 25th, from the Com.-in-Chief of Carson Consistory, that that body had taken like action. But from a communication received within the past two days, I most sincerely regret having to report to you, that, owing to a combination of embarrassments of the bodies in the Valley of Springfield, such as a loss of all their properties, records, paraphernalia, etc., by fire, one year ago last February, and the antagonistic attitude of the Templars of that city, toward the bodies of the Rite located there, the Chiefs of the several bodies represent themselves 'in no condition to operate them in evident hostility to Templar Masonry. And that it is evident to them that so soon as the first three bodies can collect their dues and pay their debts, they had better cease to exist; that such members as desire their discharge should have leave to take them; and that such as desire to remain members of Carson Consistory, have leave to consolidate with Oriental Consistory,' of this city. And they, the Chiefs of these several bodies, 'pray the Ill.'. Deputy and Council of Deliberation that such action may be taken as will bring about the results desired and specified, within the coming year.'

I very much regret the circumstances that make it seem to them desirable to dissolve or abandon their organizations, for they, being under the control and working of Brethren of acknowledged Masonic attainment and working ability, and from whom—they having been so long and intimately identified with, and having formerly evinced the greatest zeal for the advancement of the Ancient and Accepted Rite—much was confidently expected of them. We can ill afford to lose their wise counsel and active co-operation.

I cannot understand why there should be any antagonism between this and any of the York Rites, for there is no conflict of interest or principle. It is a spirit of feeling which should not be allowed to exist for one moment, if the intervention of kindly, persuasive and fraternal arguments can avail, for we are all working to the same end—each working its own way, which leads onward and upward, from darkness to light ineffable. Though we love the York Rite bodies too sincerely to ever be induced to abandon them, still, to our mind the Scottish Rite is the crowning glory of all. While non-affiliation is, at all times, to be deprecated, yet in view of all the circumstances in this case,

I would recommend that the prayer of the petitioners be granted at the same time advising the immediate consolidation of Carson Consistory with Oriental Consistory of this city. The communication is herewith submitted for your consideration."

"Ill.: Hosmer A. Johnson, 33°, on behalf of the Special Committee to whom was referred that portion of the Ill.: Deputy's address relating to the late disastrous fire, presented the following report, which, on motion of Ill.: Gilbert W. Barnard, 32°, was received, and the resolution adopted:

"Your Committee to whom was referred so much of the address of the Ill.: Commander-in-Chief as relates to Masonic relief for sufferers by the fire of October 8th and 9th, 1871, respectfully beg leave to report:

That they have carefully read the paragraph of the address, and they can imagine no more fitting words in which to express, on the one hand, our sense of the unparalleled calamity that so swiftly destroyed us; or, on the other, our recognition of the almost divine wonder accomplished by the inspiration of that sweetest, purest and strongest of Masonic as well as Christian graces, Charity.

The fund of which the Masonic fraternity here has been made the special Master, has been liberal; but that much larger fund, amounting to nearly four and one-half millions of dollars, contributed from all lands, from the worshipers at many alters; and coming to our people with kind words, in many tongues, is no less truly, in the widest and best sense of that term, a Masonic offering—a pledge of the universality of the great central thought of our Order, of the Brotherhood of Man through the Fatherhood of God.

Your Committee also recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Masons of the A.: & A.: Rite, of Illinois, profoundly moved by the liberal and timely aid extended by the universal world, to the stricken people of our chief city—the largest and richest of all the gifts recorded in human history—do hereby recognize in the inspiration of this grand work the Providential intervention of our Supreme Grand Master, and in the agencies of this relief, over the whole face of the habitable earth, a most conclusive evidence that the truths and principles of Masonry so widely spread and deeply rooted—restricted neither to race, nor color, nor creed—are in accord with the best instincts and noblest sentiments of our human nature, as well as with the Divine light emanating from our sacred altars."

I will now quote from the Historical Circular prepared by Ill. Geo. M. Moulton in 1884.

"After the consolidation, the bodies had continued to occupy the handsome and spacious apartments in the old Masonic Temple at Nos. 83, 85 and 87, Dearborn Street, until the disastrous event mentioned above. For a brief period after this disaster, the bodies found a home at the corner of Twenty-third Street and Cottage Grove Avenue. Subsequently they occupied the Masonic apartments in the West Chicago Masonic Temple, until the completion of the American Express Building, of which imposing structure the upper stories was devoted to Masonic puposes and leased to Apollo Commandery, No. 1, Knights Templar. Arrangements were effected with this latter body whereby the Scottish Rite bodies occupied in connection with the Commandery their elegant asylum and apartments. Here they continued to work and flourish, each day and year adding to the glory and popularity of the Rite, under the able leadership and command of Ill. Prince T. T. Gurney, 33°, whose well-earned fame in Masonic fields extended to the uttermost parts of this great commonwealth; Ill. Prince Gil. W. Barnard, 33° whose name and work are as familiar to the craft, both at home and abroad, as the lessons we are taught in Masonry; Ill. Prince John O'Neill, 33°, than whom no more zealous worker ever donned the Masonic armor; and Ill. Prince Henry H. Pond, 33°, our present Commander-in-Chief, who in that exalted position has achieved honorable distinction, not only for himself but for the Rite in general.

During these successive years of prosperity, the Consistory, embracing as it does in its membership, almost all of the members of the co-ordinate bodies, has participated in numerous pleasant pilgrimages, reunions and fraternal gatherings, and has at various times been highly honored.

In November, 1873, Oriental Consistory, which had just been fully equipped with the present uniform, tendered a Princely Escort to the M. P. Sov. Grand Commander, Josiah H. Drummond, 33°, which was graciously accepted on behalf of the members of the Supreme Council, upon the occasion of the first session of that august body held in this city. The escort was highly appreciated by the members of the Supreme Council, and the Consistory was in receipt of the highest encomiums from members of the Rite who were present.

In 1876, Oriental Consistory was again accorded the honor of being accepted as escort to the Supreme Council. Under the command of Ill. Prince Gil. W. Barnard, 33°, they visited the city of New York in the performance of that honorable duty; after which a pleasant, highly enjoyable and instructive pilgrimage to Philadelphia was made for the purpose of attending the Centennial Exposition.

This was the first occasion of the Consistory going away from home. There was strong opposition on the part of many members of the Supreme Council, to accepting an escort for the Supreme Council at its meetings. This feeling of opposition was based largely upon the fear that it might in the future give rise to a condition of affairs, similar to those surrounding the meetings of the Grand Encampment, K. T., but after a lengthy correspondence with the Sov. Grand Commander, Ill.: Josiah H. Drummond, permission was obtained for Oriental Consistory to make an excursion to New York City and there act as escort to the Sov. Grand Commander, Bro. Drummond not being willing to accept anything of the kind except for himself, deeming it inexpedient to include the Supreme Council, except as the members of that body themselves saw fit to participate. It is gratifying to know that the escort in New York was accepted by the members present and that the ceremonies were highly pleasing to all who participated. On our way we were met at Jersey City by the Consistory there and escorted across the River; there New York Consistory, under Command of Ill.: Charles T. McClenachan, 33°, received us in a most hospitable manner and escorted us to our hotel. The two days spent in New York were made pleasant by the Princes of that great City,

The excursion included a visit to the great Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia and the pleasant entertainment, grand hospitality and general good fellowship, shown by the Princes of that most hospitable of all hospitable cities in the world, will ever be bright and lasting in the memories of all who were with us.

On our return home, elegantly framed resolutions, expressing our thanks, accompanied with a splendid, costly banner of the Order, were forwarded to Philadelphia Consistory.

Grave doubts had been entertained by many as to the success of such an excursion under the auspices of Oriental Consistory but the success of this one was so entirely complete, that the subsequent ones organized, have always met with the zealous approval and hearty co-operation of all interested.

Arrangements were made with a number of distinguished members of the Fraternity in the City of Philadelphia to present the above named resolutions and banner, at some suitable time, to Philadelphia Consistory.

How this was done will be shown by the following report to Ill.: Brother Cregier, who was chairman of the Committee to prepare the resolutions and have them presented.

the formal meeting of Philadelphia Consistory had closed last evening, a committee from that body waited upon the undersigned and escorted them with the banner to the Asylum, where we were most courteously received by the Commander-in-Chief, Ill.: Andrew Robeno, Jr., and the officers and a large number of members of the Consistory who were in attendance.

Your Committee were honored by being accompanied, upon invitation from the Consistory, by R.: W.: G.: Master Robert Clark, and R. W. P. G. M. Richard Vaux, and the interest of the occasion was greatly enhanced by the presence with the Consistory of Ill.: Anthony E. Stocker, 33°, Deputy for the District of Pennsylvania. After entering the Asylum your Committee were introduced by Ill.: Dennis F. Dealy, 32°, who stated the object of their visit; when R.: W.: Bro.: Alfred R. Potter read your letter to him, Ill.: Charles H. Kingston, 33°, read the Resolutions of Oriental Consistory, which accompanied the banner and R.: W.: Bro.: Samuel C. Perkins formally presented and requested the acceptance of the banner and resolutions in a few remarks, which were most warmly, courteously and eloquently responded to by the Commander-in-Chief, Ill.: Andrew Robeno, Jr., 33°, on behalf of himself and Philadelphia Consistory. After the ceremonies of presentation had been concluded your Committee, with the distinguished brethren who accompanied them, were invited to partake with the members of the Consistory, of a most elegant banquet, where we were entertained with a lavish hospitality, which we are assured is a characteristic of the A.: & A.: Rite. Very great admiration was expressed by all, of the beauty of the design and workmanship of the banner; and abundant encomiums freely bestowed upon the brethren of Oriental Consistory, who had prepared so elaborate and artistic a mark of their regard for Philadelphia Consistory, and of their appreciation of the efforts which had been made in the exercise of the rites of hospitality to make their visit here pleasant and enjoyable.

With assurances of our fraternal and distinguished consideration, and the hope that the ties of brotherhood between the Masonic bodies of our respective jurisdictions may ever continue for the future as they have been in the past, of the warmest and closest character, we remain,

Very truly and fraternally yours,

ALFRED R. POTTER, Chm.,

LOUISVILLE PILGRIMAGE,
SEPTEMBER 24-28,
1883.

Again, in 1878, under command of Ill.: Gil. W. Barnard, 33°, Oriental Consistory occupied the seat of honor in the city of Milwaukee, Wis., as escort to the Supreme Council. The trip to the city of Milwaukee was one fraught with many pleasures and is frequently referred to, by the participants, with the most pleasant expressions of kind remembrance. Wisconsin Consistory had been newly equipped in a handsome uniform for the occasion, and turned out in large numbers in the parade, at the time of escorting the Supreme Council.

An elegant banquet for all the visitors and their ladies, was provided, which was followed with dancing until a late hour. Among the many entertaining features was a visit to the Soldiers' Home, and the delightful refreshments served on the grounds.

The intimacy between the Princes of Wisconsin Consistory and those of Oriental which sprang largely from the enjoyments of this occasion has continued and grown in strength to the present time, much to the pleasure and profit of both bodies. The following year, this friendly feeling was handsomely expressed, by those of Wisconsin Consistory, in the form of an elegant banner of the Rite, which was presented to Oriental, by a large delegation of Princes who came down on an evening train, and marched into our Council Chamber without ceremony, bearing the banner aloft, and taking all by complete surprise.

The banner is displayed by us, with pride, upon all proper occasions.

Yes indeed, we have good reason to remember, with pleasure, the noble Fraters of Wisconsin Consistory. A nobler band of Princes do not assemble under a Consistory Beauseant, anywhere.

The next occasion for escorting the Supreme Council occurred in 1883, at Cincinnati, O. The Princes in Cincinnati showed us every attention and the escort was participated in by a large body of Knights Templar.

This latter pilgrimage, under the command of Ill.: Prince Henry H. Pond, 33°, embracing also, as it did, a visit to our brethren of the Southern Jurisdiction in the city of Louisville, was replete with numerous pleasant features. It will long be remembered with gratification by all those whose good fortune it was to participate therein.

Especially so was this the case with regard to our visit to the Masonic Orphan's Home in Louisville, where, after being welcomed with a very happy address from a young lady inmate, and having witnessed the celebrated Drill Corps of the Orphans, the contributions made by the Consistory ($500) and individual members in the company, amounted to fully one thousand dollars.

During all this time the manner of conferring the degrees had received close attention, each succeeding officer endeavoring to excel his predecessor and in May, 1882, the impression made by Ill.: H. H. Pond, 33°, Com.-in-Chief resulted in the class of candidates at that reunion, purchasing an elegant jewel and it was presented to the Consistory for the then and succeeding Commanders-in-chief to wear as an official badge of office. It has been transmitted from officer to officer and is to-day worn by the Commander-in-chief as a highly prized memento.

In June, 1882, the Consistory, and the co-ordinate bodies, were duly organized as bodies corporate under the incorporation laws of the State of Illinois. This body being uniformed and having many members whose other Masonic affiliations were elsewhere, it was frequently called upon to perform the last sad funeral rites for a deceased member.

This developed a need for some ritual for funerals, other than the one recognized by the established rituals in use.

After several years of efforts we very happily succeeded in enlisting the interest in the matter of that distinguished Prince and Mason, Ill.: Norman T. Gassette. This brother gave to the subject his wealth of learning and host of talent and produced the grandest burial service known to the Order. It was adopted by Oriental Consistory, September 2d, 1884, copyrighted, printed in handsome form, and has been in use ever since. It has since been adopted and used by many other Consistories throughout the country and is the admiration of all who study it. Alas that it was so soon to be used at the open grave of its author.

"The morning star has drawn away the shades
Of night, and great the light that now begins,
To dawn for us !

Our brother, from whose face
Has gone expression which was wont to show
His wealth of heart; whose eyes no more will see
Us here; whose hand will not again enclasp
Our own; whose voice is still to us forever,
Has left a priceless boon, in mem'ries, which
Will oft revive, through decades of the years
To come !"

During the administration of Ill. H. H. Pond an excursion was made to the City of Peoria, Ill., to assist in the ceremonies of laying the corner-stone of the new Masonic Temple in that city on June 1st, 1882.

The seventy uniformed Princes of Oriental was the largest body of high Masonry on the ground and our display was such as to greatly add to our own credit and to the general benefit of Peoria Consistory. From that time the latter body can date its greatest prosperity.

On February 14th, 1883, the same commander accompanied with a large number of Princes made a trip to Grand Rapids, Mich., to exemplify the 32d grade in the manner for which this body is particularly distinguished. The trip was especially pleasant and we had the gratification of knowing that it done much toward assisting DeWitt Clinton Consistory of Grand Rapids to take the prominent place in the Rite that it now holds. It was under Ill. Bro. Pond, also that we occupied our new Preceptory in the spring of 1884, of which the historian of that time said:

“ Entering in the main Preceptory hall, which is forty feet wide and sixty feet in length, no sound is heard from the advancing footfall, for it is deadened in the luxurious depths of a rich velvet carpet, brightly radiant with cheerful color and harmonious design. A glance around the hall presents new beauties in profusion. On all sides can be seen the artistic wedded to the useful. In the East the eye rests upon the dais formed by the deep proscenium of the grand stage, furnished with comfortable official chairs. The grand stage in the background, thirty-five feet wide, extending back twenty-five feet, furnished with new scenery and properties, and all the paraphernalia for displaying panoramic scenes, with a handsome illustrated drop curtain and rich drapery in front.

In the West the chief ornament is the grand organ towering to the height of some sixteen feet, and handsomely decorated. On both sides of the hall and at the west end, a balcony extends, with ornamental balustrade, and carrying a double tier of folding opera chairs. Similar chairs are also used by the members upon the main floor.

The walls are relieved in their expanse by ornamental pilasters, forming panels, in each of which are special designs emblematic of the Masonic grades and orders. At the top of the walls groined niches are formed in the cornice, each of which also contains an illustration emblematic of Scottish Rite Masonry, or illuding to the chivalric times of yore. Prominent among the decorations are four views, each of which portrays some particular characteristic allusion to one of the four co-ordinate bodies of the A. A. Rite. The ceiling is also paneled, and has been treated in an effective manner, not only architecturally but artistically. The double vaulted dome under the glittering circle of gas jets, thirty-five feet above the observer, is resplendent with color and design. The pilgrim and the warrior—the Christian Knight and the Saracen—are portrayed in vivid and striking attitudes. Wherever the eye may turn, it rests upon some Masonic symbol embowered in the delicate tracery of the artist's fancy.

It should be a subject of mutual congratulation among the members of the Scottish Rite organizations in this Valley, that after the lapse of many years they are at last in possession of so beautiful a home, conveniently appointed, comfortably furnished, handsomely decorated—in every way commensurate with the growth and prosperity of the Rite.”

No finer apartments for the A. A. S. Rite were then in use anywhere.

The period of three years under Ill. Bro. Pond was of marked importance and there was, during that time, added to our membership 335 new members, making a total of 710 on the roll at the 29th annual Rendezvous; on which occasion Ill. Bro. Alfred Russell, 33° was elected Commander-in-chief. Under this energetic officer the good work of his predecessors was not allowed to languish. The reader may judge of this by the following extracts from his official report at the end of his term in December, 1887:

“A few words as to the work done during the past three years. In the year 1885 we had the pleasure of creating and constituting 69 to the degree of Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret, 32d grade. This besides the regular routine of business constituted our main work for this year.

In September, 1886, the Supreme Council held its sessions in this Preceptory. Many of the members were accompanied by their ladies, who were received, welcomed and entertained by the ladies of Oriental Consistory in a manner which won from the visiting sisters the highest praise for our ladies. After the labors of the Supreme Council were concluded the members were entertained at a banquet given in their honor at the Palmer House, at which banquet the able speeches and brilliant responses, bristling with keen wit, were noticeable features; and we were rejoiced that the occasion afforded us the long-desired opportunity to reciprocate the hospitality so bountifully bestowed on us on several occasions in other cities. That our visitors appreciated our efforts is patent from the fact that Brother W. O. Tyler, in his report to the Vermont Council of Deliberation thus alludes to this session: ‘Taking it altogether,’ he says, ‘this may well be called a session of hospitality.’

During this year also, eighty-four aspirants applied for admission to the 32d grade, and were received, the honor and dignity being conferred upon them.

In 1887, one hundred and thirty-one candidates proved themselves worthy to become soldiers in our ranks, and buckling on the armor of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret, stand ready as such to battle for God and the Right. This is the largest number that has ever been created in Oriental Consistory in one year, and makes a total of two hundred and eighty-four admitted to the Scottish Rite degrees in the past three years. It has afforded me great pleasure to have the privilege of extending the hand of fellowship to these and saluting them as brothers.

In looking over the roll of membership I found that we had upwards of 30 members residing in and around Danville. Wishing to try an experiment, I organized a camp in that place, calling it the Danville camp, and I requested the members to prepare to work the 19th degree. The result was a most gratifying success, as the class took the degree at our last convention in a manner that reflected great credit on all concerned, this being the first time this degree had been worked by our Consistory. The direct result of this action was to bring into our working force many members who had hitherto taken no active part, but who now contribute largely to the success of our cause, the interest manifested being always in direct proportion to the individual effort. This is clearly proven by our present largely increased working staff. The increase of membership for the three years is 324."

"In furtherance of the social life of our Order we have each year given a series of receptions which have been most successfully managed, and which reflect great credit on the committee having them in charge. They have been advantageous in bringing our members together socially, and acquainting the ladies of our members with each other, thus forming ties which in some cases will result in life-long friendships among us. Each year we have held two conventions which have called together many members who were unable to attend the regular meetings. The banquets which have been held at the close of these conventions have been an especial feature. The banquet held last November in Battery D Armory, at the close of the last convention held in these rooms, proved to be the largest and most enjoyable of all, owing probably to our inviting the ladies to participate with us, their gracious presence and kindly influence softening and subduing the asperities of our rougher nature, and lending to the scene a grace and brilliance hitherto unattained.

The close of the year 1884, owing to the large amount of money expended to fit up our present quarters, found us with a debt of $2,714.00, and $872.00 in the treasury. During the year 1885 we were not quite able to liquidate this indebtedness, and the year closed leaving us with a debt of $1,200.00, and $459.00 in the treasury. 1886 brought a more favorable result, and enabled us to report our indebtedness reduced to $474.00, and $1,035.00 in hand with which to pay it; and it affords me the greatest pleasure to announce that 1887 enables me to report that to-day Oriental Consistory has in her treasury $3,009.71 in cash, and $875.00 worth of new paraphernalia, and does not owe one dollar that I know of. During the past three years $546.00 have been put into improvements in the Preceptory; this, with $745.50 in dues to be collected and $3,009.71 in cash in the hands of the Treasurer makes a total of $5,175.00, thus giving to my successor a very clever balance with which to start the new year. This estimate does not include the original interest which we own in these quarters, as that will show in your Secretary's report as assets."

On December 26, 1886, one of our most distinguished members, Ill. Prince John A. Logan, 32<sup>o</sup>, U. S. senator from Illinois, died in Washington. This body was represented at his funeral, December 31, in the Senate Chamber, at the Capitol of the United States, by an escort consisting of the following: Alfred Russell, Amos Pettibone, L. D. Richardson, Geo. W. Warvelle, R. M. Johnson and Gil W. Barnard.

Among the beautiful and interesting contributions to the services of the evening, was the following from the pen of our esteemed brother Norman T. Gassette of whom, "Naught is left but memories of our dead."

IN MEMORIAM.

Alas! when all is said which we can say,
Above the pallid, cold, and silent clay,
When throbbing, sobbing dirge and funeral song
Their force have spent upon the mourning throng,—
When tone, as well, from speaker's voice has sped,
Naught then is left but memories of our dead.

Hush! hear the wheels' loud rumble in the street,
The din of business and fast-stirring feet,
No thought is there midst traffic's hardened strife,
Of Death's fell work, with finite hope and life.

Since man has lived to think, and toil, and die,
Some hope he's sought on which he might rely,
With hands outstretched, in potent voice of prayer,
He has invoked an answer everywhere.
Seraphic visions fill his mind at times
And music sounds as if from far off climes.

The roar then from the earth comes rushing in
To draw his thoughts from God, to earth's foul din,
And hence, the sons of Egypt sought to find
Some solace for the worried, wearied mind.

So, for their dead a sleeping place they made
In vaulted crypt, hid under earth's deep shade.
Above each crypt a Mastaba was found,
Where oft the beat of saddened hearts would sound.
Around, above, and on the walls was spread
A record of the deeds of all their dead.

The rumble in the noisy street goes on,
They heed it not, in Death's still Parthenon;
And kneeling down, they spake then of the soul
In halo clothed, far off, from earth so cold.

We do not need to write upon the walls
The deeds of these our dead. Where falls
A shadow on the floor, or roof above,
Is record made—a silhouette of love—
And deep within our hearts we seem to feel
A spirit cause, to make us pause and kneel.

Then let the wheels roll on, out in the street,
But let us off in this our chapel meet,
And here review the memories of the dead
Then silently retire, with noiseless tread.

December 22, 1887, Ill.: Brother George R. McClellan, 33°, was elected Commander-in-Chief. An active, earnest worker for twenty years in the field of the A. A. S. Rite; brother McClellan was well qualified to take up the work and carry it on with the energetic and careful system which was characteristic of all his Masonic life and deeds.

But, alas! before he had time to fully perfect and accomplish his brightest and best desires and opportunities, he was "numbered with the dead," January 10, 1890; he was, after a brief illness, called away and taken up higher.

The following extracts from the Triennial address of Commander-in-Chief, George M. Moulton, of January 15, 1891, will cover interesting data for the period:

"Our special duty this evening will be to review the work, with its results, financial and otherwise, which has been accomplished during the past year, and also to exercise your suffrages in the choice of an administrative corps of officers to serve during the next ensuing triennial term. The several reports which will be presented for your consideration this evening will epitomize the year's labors in this Consistory. A careful consideration of past results will best enable us to meet the future with an increased store of wisdom and discretion.

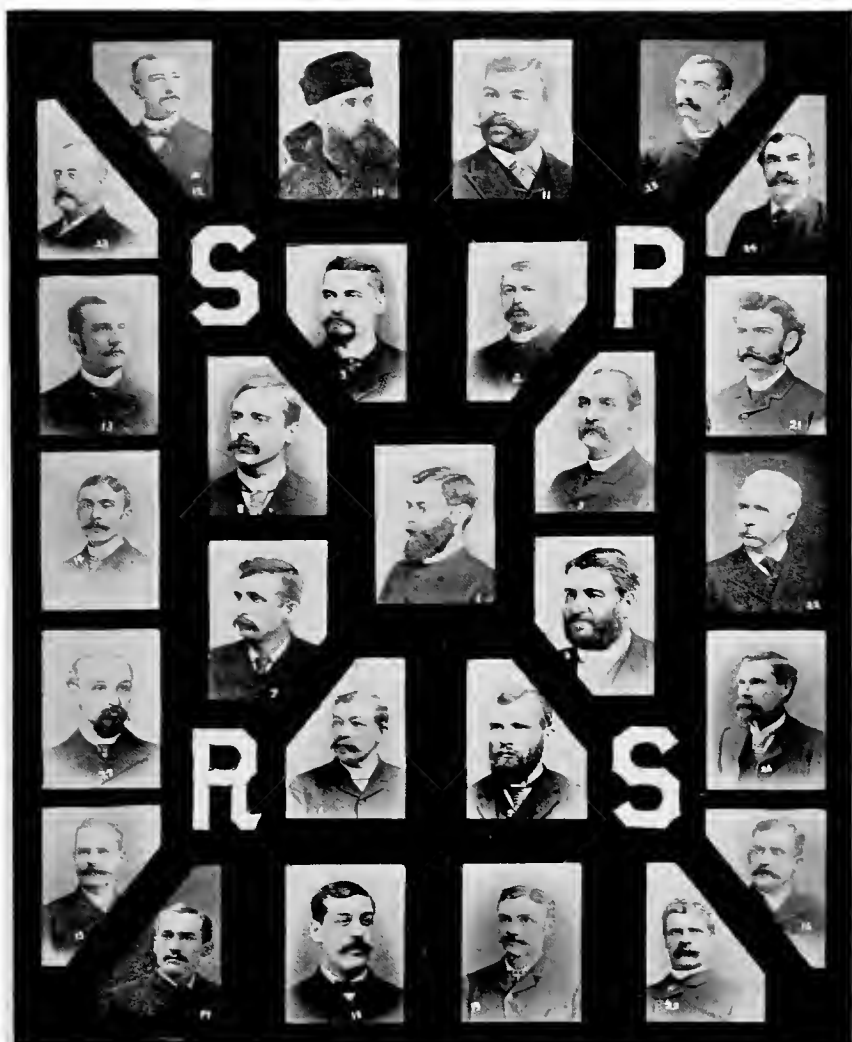

The year which has elapsed since our last Annual Rendezvous has been a comparatively eventful one. While the incidents of that last annual gathering were still fresh in our memories, and within a few short days thereafter, our Commander-in-Chief was summoned by the Supreme Architect of the Universe to surrender his command, and to enter into eternal life. Thus the services of an able and experienced officer,—than whom none was ever more indefatigable in the discharge of duty, or zealous to maintain the best welfare of the Consistory,—were lost at the very threshold of the new year upon which we were entering with so much promise. By virtue of the Constitution and General Regulations of the Supreme Council, A. A. S. R. of the N. M. J. U. S. A., it became necessary for me, as the next ranking officer, to assume the office of Commander-in-Chief, with its title, powers, and prerogatives, of which due notice was extended to the members through the medium of General Orders No. 1.

With the added responsibilities of Commander-in-Chief thrust upon me so unexpectedly, it was natural that I should seek the assistance and experienced counsel of one who had served you in a similar capacity so acceptably before, and therefore Ill.: Prince Alfred Russell was designated in the same General Orders to act as 1st Lieut. Commander until the next election. The support and assistance of the officers and members at large were also freely contributed, so that I am happy to state this evening that the year has been for the Consistory a prosperous one, and one that will compare favorably with those that have preceded it. Oriental Consistory stands to-day as the third largest in point of membership in the United States.

It is no less a pleasure to state that the Rite at large has made an almost phenomenal growth. In round figures there were in 1887, in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, 13,000 Scottish Rite Masons, while the tableau of 1890 discloses the fact that more than 17,000 have been enrolled in the Grand Masonic Army of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret. In the Southern Jurisdiction of the U. S. A. the ratio of increase has been even more remarkable, while in the British American provinces, together with Mexico, and even in South America, the Scottish Rite is making rapid growth, and in the latter countries easily outstrip all other Masonic organizations.

In this country, and particularly in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, the Scottish Rite has, during the past three or four years, passed through the most trying ordeal it has ever experienced. Nevertheless, even as the precious metals are tried by fire to relieve them of the dross and other impurities, so does our beloved Rite stand forth from the test unscathed, purified and strengthened. It is well known history that in the earlier days of Scottish Rite Masonry, division of opinion, and consequent dissensions arose among the leading minds of the organization, which threatened grave results, yet which, through the promptings of brotherly love and regard for the institution of Masonry, were long since healed, adjusted and finally settled on a satisfactory and harmonious basis. This is also a matter of well authenticated and easily attainable history. The result was that the Rite achieved a more exalted standing and higher character than ever before, and showed the great force and binding strength of the principles of our institution. Notwithstanding the happy and amicable settlement of all differences, there were a few persons, who, devoid of principle and prompted by mercenary motives, or seeking preferment in the Masonic world which was not their due, and unattainable in any legitimate manner, proved traitors to their vows. Through the efforts of these unprincipled persons, several clandestine organizations called "Cerneau" Scottish Rite bodies were formed, which arrogated the right to call themselves the only legitimate Scottish Rite bodies. So diligently did these unworthy men conduct their labors, "Cerneauism" gained an undeserved prominence, and the struggle of its votaries for recognition and existence finally became visible in the Master Mason's Lodge, and other Masonic organizations, and caused so much dissension to arise among the fraternity that it became necessary, in self defense, for not only Grand Lodges A. F. & A. M. but the Grand Chapters R. A. M. and Grand Commanderies K. T. in many State Jurisdictions, to take cognizance of the danger which was threatening their several organizations, and to enact the most positive legislation with reference to it. Most of the leading minds of this Rite were opposed to the consideration of the spurious bodies in any form by the Grand Bodies referred to, and held themselves generally aloof from any participation in the struggle for recognition of this Rite by the other orders of Masonry, or in the debates upon this very grave question, which threatened for a time to disturb the entire Masonic fabric. In view of this condition of affairs, it is indeed gratifying to note the practically unanimous action that has been taken wherever the question has been considered. In every instance the seal of disapproval and condemnation has been set upon the usurper. Cerneauism is dead, and beyond resurrection. That which first appeared to threaten us with disaster has proven to be a blessing in disguise to the Rite at large. It has drawn the attention of the students of the Masonic world towards the history and true condition of this Rite. We, who are of the household, know that we have nothing to fear, but everything to gain, from the most searching investigation of our institution.

We, in Illinois, have much to be thankful for, in having escaped the immediate infliction of Cerneauism in our midst. For this, much is due to the watchfulness and indefatigable efforts of our Illustrious Deputy for this District, Ill.: Bro. John Corson Smith, 33°, and to the loyalty and integrity of our members to the principles of Masonry the rest may be credited.

The gratifying results of the legislation with reference to this recognition of the legitimate as opposed to the spurious and clandestine, attained in the respective Grand Bodies referred to, are largely due to the lessons and to those great principles which are a part of the first three degrees of Masonry, and which are the basis of all Rites in Masonry. Princes, it is to those grand lessons and principles which they inculcate, that we should always first render our love, our loyalty and Masonic adherence. Never forget the charge you received in the Northeast corner as an E. A. Mason, nor the sacred and solemn instructions you received in the middle chamber; and above all, remember the example of zeal and fidelity displayed in the Sanctum Sanctorum. Then will it be easy to maintain yourselves in the characters of Sublime Princes of the Royal Secret.

The growth of membership in our own Consistory has been exceptionally gratifying during the past year. One hundred and twenty-two recruits have been added to the Grand Masonic Army, a record which has been exceeded by only one year in the history of the Consistory. Fourteen swords have been sheathed for the last time, and forever; and those who were so well able to wield them while living, now rest in eternal peace. Let our thoughts rest for a brief time with our departed brethren, while in tender remembrance we call the sad roll of those whose lips are forever silent and can no more respond to our call.

Since the last annual report, the Consistory acting concurrently with the coordinate bodies of the Rite, have subscribed for $25,000 of the capital stock of the Masonic Fraternity Temple Association, and our proportion, viz., thirty-five per cent of one-half of said subscription has been paid in cash, amounting to $4,375.00.

The objects and purposes of the Association referred to are familiar to all present, and repetition thereof is thereby rendered unnecessary. There is no doubt in the minds of those who have given the matter due consideration, and familiarized themselves with the features of the project that the Association has in hand, that this investment is not only wise and highly appropriate, but that future results will justify the wisdom which prompted the investment, by substantial financial returns. It is a pleasure to be able to report at this time that the most active operations are being conducted toward a practical realization of the objects of the Association. Day and night busy workmen are engaged in preparing the broad foundations of the massive structure to be known as the Masonic Temple, which in a few months will rear its lofty height toward the sky, far above any similar structure in existence, and rivaling even cathedral spires or monumental shafts in its towering altitude, as beautiful as they are, yet combining also utility and therefore practical value. By May 1, 1892, the completed structure will stand forth a monument alike to the Masonic Fraternity and to the indomitable will and comprehensive sagacity of the organizers in the enterprise. The untiring, zealous, and well-directed efforts of these brethren, and most particularly the incomparable ability of Ill'. Bro. Norman T. Gassette to handle the financial details of the project, has rendered possible the realization of what has been the dream of the Masonic workers in this city for years.

Before another triennial period is ended, I have no doubt but that the coordinate bodies of the Scottish Rite in the Valley of Chicago will be domiciled in apartments of this Temple, excelled by none for space and magnificence, and fully commensurate with the dignity which the Rite has attained at present and will maintain in the future.

Prominent among the features which have been instrumental in placing the Scottish Rite, and particularly the reputation of the Consistory, foremost among the Masonic organizations of the city, has been the justly earned commendation which has been awarded through the public displays of the organization. Whether the solemn duty of funeral escort, or the joyous features of a fraternal visit were before its members, in every instance the conduct and bearing of our members before the profane world has been such as would fully comport with the dignity and importance of the organization. A larger percentage of members in attendance upon funeral occasions is all that the most exacting mind could demand in the performance of any duty incumbent upon the Consistory, and requiring a public display. It would be proper to refer to the most notable of these appearances in public during the past year, as in each instance the members participating were entitled to credit.

June 29th, at the invitation of Rev. Geo. C. Lorimer, the Consistory as a body attended divine service in the Immanuel Baptist Church, attired in citizen's clothing. Those of our members who were present, together with a large congregation, were rewarded by a most eloquent discourse delivered by the eminent pastor, whom we take pride in calling our brother, and Sublime Prince of the Royal Secret.

Probably the most important and enjoyable of all the public displays of the year was the journey to Cleveland, in September, 1890. In pursuance of the action of this body, an escort of honor was tendered to the Supreme Council, A. A. S. R. N. M. J., upon the occasion of its session in Cleveland, Sept. 16, 1890, which escort was graciously accepted by Sov. Grand Commander Henry L. Palmer, 33°, on behalf of the Supreme Council. Sixty-eight Princes, fully armed and equipped, availed themselves of the opportunity to evince their loyalty to the governing body, and participate at the same time in the fraternal pleasures incident to the occasion. Thirty of the Princes displayed their gallantry by inviting their wives and daughters to join the party. A most hearty welcome was accorded to the visitors by our Cleveland brethren, who have lately instituted a Consistory in that city. As a partial return for the many courtesies which were extended, and for the purpose of more fully expressing the appreciation of the members of our organization, the ladies of Oriental Consistory then present in Cleveland gave a reception at the Forest City House, which was successfully conducted, and enjoyable in the highest degree. The parlors of that most excellent hotel were thronged for hours with the beauty and chivalry of Cleveland. The Second Regiment Band of Chicago, which accompanied the Consistory during the entire trip, acquitted themselves with great credit, and were the recipients of many well earned encomiums upon their proficiency and martial appearance.

While in Cleveland, a pilgrimage was made to the tomb of Garfield, the martyred president. Ceremonies appropriate to the occasion were conducted at the tomb, the prominent feature of which was an eloquent address by Inspector-General, Norman T. Gassette, 33°. The performance of this duty of reverence by the Consistory created extended and highly favorable comment.

Before passing from this subject, I desire here publicly, as I have heretofore in private, to extend the warm thanks of Oriental Consistory as a body, in addition to my own personal acknowledgments, to the executive committee in charge of the Cleveland expedition. Their labors were crowned with the laurel of success, and added much to the already acquired reputation of the Consistory.

The services rendered by the Consistory upon the laying of the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple, as escort to the M. W. Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., were acknowledged by the Illustrious Deputy of this District, acting in the capacity of Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, in a highly commendatory letter, in which he conveyed his personal thanks, together with the grateful acknowledgments of the M. W. Grand Master. It is conceded generally that the Consistory never paraded in larger numbers, nor presented a more favorable appearance than upon this occasion. Having the right of line, and preceding a column of several thousand of the fraternity, the Consistory were justly awarded the verdict of "unexcelled."

Possibly there is nothing which has contributed so much, however, to the popularity of the Consistory in the hearts and minds of members, or added to the respect it has gained outside of its membership, as the well conducted, pleasurable, and therefore heartily enjoyable social receptions that have been instituted under the auspices of Oriental Consistory. The present series seem, if possible, to be more highly enjoyable than ever before. They have been largely attended, and each recurring reception is anticipated with the greatest of pleasure."

The membership of the Consistory at this time was 1,200.

In his inaugural address the Commander-in-Chief delivered the following:

ILL.: PRINCES:

It is not my purpose to weary you this evening with a long speech, but I deem it incumbent upon me not alone as a duty, but a pleasure, to say a few words upon this occasion; and first, let me assure you, one and all, of my profound appreciation of the particular distinction and honor conferred by you, which has made it possible for me to stand here this evening as the representative officer of this, the third largest Consistory in the United States, if not in the world; and if my life shall be spared, your Commander-in-Chief for the next three years.

In accepting this position with all its distinction and honor, I am not unmindful of its duties and responsibilities, with which there comes a tinge, yea, even a thrill of hesitation, for with the distinction comes the responsibility. Not that I expect one without accepting the other, but there follows the realization of the feeble abilities of my own with which to grasp and endeavor to master, in a wise and judicious manner, the multiplex duties that devolve upon him who attempts to be a leader of his brethren, to faithfully demonstrate the true exemplar of the principles of Freemasonry, the Loving Brother and Sublime Prince, within whom should ever reside these many virtues, and be made manifest in the every-day walk and conduct in life of him who shall occupy this most exalted and dignified position to the end that peace, prosperity and brotherly love may prevail.

To those whose privilege it was to be present at our last Triennial Conclave and hear the exhaustive report made at that time by our now Past Commander-in-Chief, we are most forcibly reminded of the brilliant record achieved by our predecessors in the upbuilding of this Masonic Structure, which has now become historical, and will stand as a living monument of their noble work, and an incentive to us not to stand idly by while the duties of life are to be done and we are expected to perform them. Let us hope that it may be our privilege to successfully carry forward this work with untarnished banners, unrestrained zeal, and such earnestness of purpose as may commend our efforts to those who shall succeed us.

To accomplish this your commander most earnestly solicits the hearty assistance and co-operation of each and every member of this Consistory, not one of whom but can make a good suggestion, or render valuable service in some direction that will materially aid us in the prosecution of our labor, and I assure you that such service will be most gratefully received and appreciated.

This triennial term to many, if not to all of us, will be the most important one in the history of our Masonic career. Within this term there will have been (we hope and confidently expect) erected, dedicated and occupied by this Consistory, the largest and grandest Masonic structure, in all its conception and detail, in this country, if not in the world, and we expect that it will be the exalted privilege of this body to become its first Masonic occupant. Let us hope and pray that we may all live to witness this result.

This term will also usher in and say farewell to the World's Columbian Exposition, which will probably bring to our fair city representatives from every nation on earth, and without doubt brethren of the Scottish Rite, not only from every Masonic Jurisdiction in the world, but from every country and clime where the secrets of our Order exist.

What a profound thought, that here in this city, within our own homes, in a few short months, it will be made possible for us to meet and greet brethren from all quarters of the earth.

What we are to do for their special enjoyment while with us will be a question for our consideration in the near future, but let us determine that, what ever we do it shall be so tempered with hospitality and genuine brotherly love that each and every one may return to his own country and home with the firm conviction that we faithfully practice the Masonic virtues and principles which we teach.

This will be a golden opportunity for moulding Masonic sentiment and principles. Let us profit by it, and so shape our course as to commend our efforts and labor to the respect and admiration of the craft everywhere.

That this occasion will demand a considerable amount of money to properly maintain the dignity and hospitality which I am sure of all the Princes will desire to extend, must be apparent to every one, and the means to be adopted for providing it will be one of the first that will need our careful consideration.

With the obligations this and the co-ordinate bodies have already assumed in aid of the new Masonic Temple, it is readily seen that we cannot hope to complete our payments (which must and will be done) and leave us any considerable sum for other purposes, unless we shall have much larger receipts as result of our labor than the times would seem to indicate, or lead us to confidently hope for.

Let me urge your earnest consideration of this subject in order that we may reach the wisest and best conclusion.

Princes, allow me to again thank you for favoring me with the highest office and honor in your power to bestow. It is a mark of distinction, love, confidence and esteem, that can never be effaced from the tablet of my memory; and I give you the most positive assurance that it shall be my earnest endeavor to administer the affairs of this office so as not to bring discredit to the cause we represent, or you to regret that you elevated me to this high station. Please bear in mind, however, that I am simply human, subject to all the ills that flesh is heir to, but give your assistance, counsel and the right hand of brotherly love, as cheerfully as I shall always receive the same, and you will render me most valuable aid, and our cause will be the benefactor.

In this way we shall most successfully prosecute our labors to a conclusion, ever bearing in mind that motto on the banner of our Order:

" SPEAS MEA, IN DEO EST."

PHOTOGRAPHS AND LIBRARY.

Among the many interesting features connected with the growth and prosperity of these bodies was the adoption of a plan to obtain the photographs of as many as possible of the old members together with those coming in at present.

Those of the living are placed in albums which are on the tables in the parlors. Those of the deceased members are collected in albums specially prepared for them and the whole collection now numbers over one thousand. They have proved of great value in many ways.

Several years since, the idea was adopted of having each class or group of candidates receiving the degrees at one time photographed together. Each member of the class receiving one copy of the group and one copy is framed and displayed in our parlors.

The pleasant acquaintance made in this way and the agreeable reminiscences of the same, proves of great interest as the years go by.

I have had reproduced for this book, several of the older classes in order to preserve them from the destructive effect of time and season.

We have now determined to have no more frames made, but to preserve them, in albums specially made for each class.

The collection made for the library is another feature of interest.

In this respect there has not been any elaborate attempt to make a collection of books other than those pertaining to Freemasonry in its various branches.

The printed proceedings of the Supreme Council N. J., from the beginning are complete, also those of the Supreme Council of Canada. The later sessions of the Southern S. C., and many of the valuable bulletins of our lamented Brother, Albert Pike, comprise all from that Jurisdiction.

R. W. Brother L. L. Munn, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Illinois has assisted in furnishing us with nearly a full set of Grand Lodge proceedings.

Ill.: Brother John C. Smith, 33<sup>c</sup>, Deputy for Illinois, has contributed many valuable publications from this state, and to that lamented, distinguished and illustrious statesman and soldier Prince John A. Logan, are we indebted for nearly the whole set, so far as published, of the "Official Records of the Union and Confederate Armies."

Want of room and the opportunity to display our collection in the apartments now occupied, has hindered the development of this part of our intention to have an attractive library. It is hoped that when we occupy our new Home, the coming season, opportunity will be afforded this feature to grow and become one of our most valuable properties.

" Who loves the truth, loveth good books,
Out from whose every page
Beameth a light that fadeth not
The window of the sage."

In harmony with the ideas of the Commander-in-Chief, as expressed above, action was had as follows:

ANCIENT ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE.

PRECEPTORY OF

ORIENTAL CONSISTORY, S.: P.: R.: S.:

VALLEY OF CHICAGO, August 1, 1891.

SUBLIME PRINCE:

At a stated Rendezvous of Oriental Consistory, held in their Preceptory June 25, 1891, the undersigned were appointed a Committee on ways and means, for the purpose of creating a special fund, by voluntary subscription, to be used in the entertainment of our fraters from all parts of the civilized world who will sojourn in our city during the period of the "World's Columbian Exposition," and the same to be in keeping with our reputation as Masons and to equal, if not surpass, entertainments that are now being planned by other societies of a kindred nature. Your Committee, after due deliberation, are of the opinion that the first thing necessary is to get this subject before the members, and receive from them their promise of subscription, to enable them to formulate plans for the entertainment, which must be based on the amount subscribed, and to that end they have decided to request as a minimum amount from each member the sum of twenty dollars each year, beginning July 1, 1891, and ending July 1, 1893, which amount they suggest shall be paid in quarterly installments of five dollars, believing this will not be a hardship to any one. We herewith enclose you a blank form for your subscription, and respectfully request you to sign and return the same at your earliest convenience, and with it the first remittance. Your Committee desire it to be understood by all that this plan will not prevent any member from making a larger subscription, and they realize that it will be necessary for those who are able to do so, to subscribe more liberally than the above amount. It is our intention to give notice, through the "World's Columbian Exposition Printing Bureau," to our brethren in foreign Jurisdictions, that when they reach our city we shall not be wholly unmindful of the fact that they are strangers, and shall at least do our part and all we can to show them that brethren "dwell together in unity wheresoever dispersed around the Globe." There will be many things occurring in the future in connection with this movement that will be of interest to all, and your Committee will from time to time present them for your consideration. We realize the magnitude of this undertaking, and must have the full support of all the members to carry it to a satisfactory and successful ending which we hope will redound to the credit of our beloved Order. We ask you to be prompt in your reply, and as liberal as possible in your subscription, and also, to make of yourself a committee of one to see that at least one other member has responded to the Committee. Address all communications and make checks

The response to the above has been liberal, and at the present writing, everything indicates that we shall be able to fully discharge our duties as hosts of the high grade Masons of the world.

Two years and more have come and gone since the delivery of the forgoing inaugural address and the unusual prosperity that has attended us is shown by the extracts from the annual reports of the Grand Secretary at the close of the second year.

REPORT OF GRAND SECRETARY, 1892.

The following is taken from the annual report of the Grand Secretary in December, 1892:

"While it is going on fifteen years that I have been Secretary of the Consistory, it was several years before I was elected in all of the co-ordinate bodies in this valley. After I was so elected it was a year before I could get the matters all straightened out and old books balanced.

When this was done I was confronted with the necessity of adopting some plan or combination of plans that would result in an accurate, systematic and economical way of keeping the accounts. I was fortunate in being considered at that time, as an expert in book-keeping, and the combination cash journal then invented for the use of the bodies, has proved sufficiently attractive to others, as to be adopted in many other Valleys of the Rite where four co-ordinate bodies are working.

If we deduct from the assets, a loss on the Preceptory account of say, $10,000.00, we still have a profit of $36,713.18, or about 25 per cent.

It must be understood also that all regalia and paraphernalia is charged under the several expense accounts and those things are much more valuable now than they were in 1882 — ten years ago.

The amount of fees collected show that we have had 1,146 candidates. In 1882 our membership was 461; it is now 1,443, showing a gain of 982, being an average of about 100 per year.

It would prove interesting perhaps to some if I could present here a summary of the various items charged under the head of expense in the four bodies for the past ten years. It was my intention to do so when I began investigating for the data that I have presented above, but my eyesight has been so poor for some time that I have had to give it up.

Suffice to say, that we have spent the money and I think that all will allow that we have had a good time and our money's worth.

We are now at the threshold of the important events suggested by our Ill. Commander-in-Chief, that is the occupation of our new apartments in the Masonic Fraternity Temple, which will occur in May, 1893, also of the great event of our day and for our city, the opening of the wonderful World's Columbian Exposition.

In addition it will be seen by the following circulars and invitation that the Supreme Council N. J. has accepted our invitation to hold their next annual session in this city.

Imperial Recorder A. A. O. N. M. S.

mencing on the third Tuesday, the 19th day of September, 1893, to which you are cordially invited to be present.

This being the year of the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago, it is expected that members of your Supreme Council will be visiting this city, and the hope is expressed that each one of the brethren will so arrange his visit as to include the month of September, when Oriental Consistory, S.: P.: R.: S.: 32°, Gourgas Chapter, Rose Croix, 18°, Chicago Council, Princes of Jerusalem, 16°, Van Rensselær Lodge of Perfection, 14°, and the Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, U. S. A., Thirty-third and last degree, will be in session, so they may witness the conferring of all the degrees, from the Fourth or Secret Master's degree, to the Thirty-third and last degree of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

If any other inducement could be offered our Illustrious brethren of other Supreme Councils to participate with us in this, the Eighty-first Annual Session of this Supreme Council, than the cordial and fraternal invitation herein extended, it must be found in the Annual Address of our M. P. Sovereign Grand Commander, the Hon. Henry L. Palmer, which is as follows: "Our meeting might be made the nucleus of a World's Congress of Scottish Rite Masons for fraternal and social intercourse, for receiving and communicating information, for making acquaintances between brethren at a great distance from each other, and by friendly intercourse and exchange of fraternal courtesies strengthen and make closer the bonds of Brotherhood between Scottish Rite Masons of the different nations. We would gladly welcome to our Supreme Council the members of any or all of the other Supreme Councils with which we are in correspondence."

And now, dear brethren, may we expect you to be with us at that time?

We fraternally ask Grand Secretary General to inform each Thirty-third degree member of his Supreme Council of this invitation, and write the chairman of this Committee of the acceptance of the same and the names of the Illustrious brethren who expect to be present.

FEAST DAYS.

In the earlier days of our history it was customary to have particular observance of the Holy and Feast days specially noted in our Ritual, and for several years an annual Lodge of Sorrow was held.

The increase in numbers has rendered such observance almost impossible of late, owing to want of room to accommodate the crowd of visitors and members attending on such occasions.

The last of the Feast Day ceremonies in Gourgas Chapter of Rose Croix, was held April 10th, 1879, with the following officers in charge:

JAMES E. CHURCH, 32°.....M.: W.: and P.: Master.
 F. W. CHAMBERLAIN, 32°.....M.: E.: and P.: K.: Sen.: Warden.
 A. M. THOMSON, 32°.....M.: E.: and P.: K.: Jun.: Warden.
 W. A. STEVENS, 33°.....M.: E.: and P.: K.: Grand Orator.
 E. B. MYERS, 33°.....R.: and P.: K.: Treasurer.
 ED. GOODALE, 32°.....R.: and P.: K.: Secretary.
 E. F. DELUCE, 32°.....R.: and P.: K.: Hospitaler.
 D. C. ROUNDY, 32°.....R.: and P.: K.: Mas.: of Cer.:
 R. M. JOHNSON, 32°.....R.: and P.: K.: Capt.: of the G.:

Quotations from the proceedings on that occasion are as follows:

OPENING CEREMONIAL.

BY M.: W.: & P.: M.: JAMES E. CHURCH, 32°.

To the Glory of the Grand Architect of the Universe; in the name and under the auspices of the Sup.: Council of Sov.: Gr.: Insp.: Gen'ls of the 33° and last degree for the North.: Mas.: Jur.: of the U. S. of A., and by virtue of the powers in me vested, I call this Chapter from labor to refreshment.

This Chapter is now called to refreshment. Before we part, let us eat together the bread earned by our labors, and thank our Heavenly Father for furnishing us with the means for sustaining life.

Bro.: Mas.: of Cer.: visit the avenues, and see if there be any brother, or even any of the profane, who suffer from hunger or thirst; if there be, bring him in, for whoever he may be, he is our brother, and we will freely divide with him our bread and wine.

(Procession Formed.)

Brothers and Knights, let us assemble around the table of fraternal love, joyfully strengthening the tie which binds our hearts together.

(In silence and order, the Knights followed the M.: W.: to the table.)

ADDRESS BY THE GRAND ORATOR.

From time immemorial, man has plighted his faith and confidence in his fellow-man by drinking from the same cup and eating from the same loaf.

Among Eastern nations at the present day has this method of solemnizing a pledge been retained. We learn from history, and our Fathers of the Masonic Faith, that in the ancient mysteries of Judea and Egypt, the newly initiated were presented with bread and wine as a symbol of the new life they were about entering upon, and that they were henceforth to be devoted to the laws of truth, and knowledge of their rights and duties.

* * * * *

With us it is simply a manifestation of fraternal love, as inculcated by Charity and Masonic Philosophy.

The solemn feast of the Rose Croix Knights is held this day, and commemorates the feast of the Passover, observed by the Jews.

Resp.: and P.: Knights, the feast of which we are about to partake is thus ordered:

“On the 10th of the month of Nisan, they shall take to them every man a lamb, a lamb for a house; and if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbors next unto his house take it, according to the number of the souls. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. And ye shall keep it up until the 14th day of the same month, and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening, and they shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and ye shall let nothing remain of it until the morning, nor break any bone of it; and that which remaineth of it until the morning, ye shall burn with fire.

"And thus shall ye eat it: with your loins girded, your shoes upon your feet and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat in haste; it is the Lord's Pass-over. And this day shall be unto you for a memorial, and ye shall keep it as a feast to the Lord throughout your generation, a feast by an ordinance forever."

This feast, and the bread and wine of which we partake, are to us symbols of fraternity and brotherly affection, and of that perfect union that must ever subsist among Bro. Knights of the Rose Croix.

M.: W.: Thus, Bro. Knights, are we assembled, solemnly and fraternally pledging ourselves one to another in brotherly love, in the presence of the angels and of that great Intelligence that surrounds us in our every action.

We are members of a universal Brotherhood, where Truth is the base and Morality the hand-maid. We are Knights of Masonry, and to her service our swords are consecrated. May we prove worthy soldiers in a worthy cause.

(The Resp.: and P.: Knights, under direction of the Most Wise and Perfect Master, then partook of the general feast of Lamb and Wine.)

After which, remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by several distinguished members of the Order, and sentiments responded to.

The first toast was, the M. W. Grand Lodge of Illinois, to which Bro. Theo. T. Gurney responded.

The next toast, Van Rensselaer Grand Lodge of Perfection was responded to by Ill.: Bro. Vincent L. Hurlbut, and we quote:

What consecrated memories throng around us here! When I think of all the steps taken from an entrance through the outer veil of Free Masonry up to this grand height upon which we stand; of the trials of our faith and fidelity; of the vows taken; of the solemn pledges so often repeated and renewed, before we were found worthy to pronounce that ineffable name. When I think of our most wonderful history, and the mighty names that adorn it; of the gifted souls that have laid upon our altars their genius and devotion, I stand in awe before such a crowd of unseen witnesses, and seem to hear them saying: "Take the shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." There is nothing of possible nobleness within our reach to which we are not pledged. Think of the grave questions we were called upon to answer with sincerity of heart, and without mental evasion, before we were permitted to enter this Holy of Holies! Think of the sacred symbolism that surrounded and invested us; the ring, the symbol of unbroken friendship; an unbroken circle—ONE for time and eternity; the bread and wine the ancient symbols of brotherhood, and the pledges of undying constancy and devotion, reminding us of that one sacrament, the pledge of immortal love; the sad but fitting memorial of spiritual presence and discipleship, the prelude of the sublimest sacrifice and the most sorrowful tragedy time shall ever witness, and I am sure we shall all feel lifted far above all selfish aims, and with new zeal shall here resolve to consecrate every energy to the noble achievement to which we are personally pledged. Around us lies this weary, waiting world, cursed by selfishness and sin, and hither we must go with unwavering Faith, with courageous Hope, and a God-like Charity, to lift the burden from its bruised and aching heart, and make it throb with gladness in the warmth and the light of illimitable love. Brethren, I ask you to form again the sacred circle, and partake with me of the symbols of that holy covenant which binds us together for all time, and which, reaching beyond the valley of death, becomes the pledge of an immortal brotherhood.

Addresses followed from many distinguished members of the Rite, among them Ill. Brothers H. A. Johnson, J. Adams Allen and James B. Bradwell.

As late as January, 1887, and again January, 1888, Ill. George W. Warvelle Grand Master of Chicago Council Princes of Jerusalem organized and carried out particular observances as follows:

*                     *                     *                     *                     *

“You will also observe that on that day will be held the annual feast, in commemoration of the triumphal entry into Jerusalem of the Ambassadors on their return from Babylon, and you are earnestly invited to be present and participate with us in this manifestation of fraternity and brotherly affection.

With fraternal salutations,

GEO. W. WARVELLE,

M. E. S. P. Gr. Master.

By the Constitutions of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, two great annual feasts are provided for the Princes of Jerusalem; the one to celebrate the anniversary of the triumphal return of the ambassadors from Babylon, and the other in memory of the frank offerings rendered to God for the rebuilding of the Temple. These feasts, in all their essential details, are peculiar to Masonry, and form no part of the ancient ceremonial observances of the Jews. They are distinctively commemorative in character and, unlike the festivals of Rose Croix, have no special religious or symbolic significance. They recall two of the happiest periods in the legendary history of the craft, replete with stirring adventure and fraught with impressive lessons, and enable us, while contemplating the trials and victories of our ancient brethren, to renew in fraternal reunion our own vows and professions. The feast provided for this occasion commemorates not only the joyous reception accorded to Zerubabel and his companions on the successful completion of their mission, but also the prior events, which culminated in the unbounded liberality of Darius, and brought freedom and protection to the oppressed Jews.

REUNIONS.

The Annual and Semi-Annual Reunions of the Co-ordinate Bodies have been celebrated in the Rite for their attractive and interesting character for many years and are attended by visitors and members from all parts of this continent.

Among the most pleasant features of them, in later years, have been the fine musical programmes.

The last one, in 1892 we print herewith:

ENTERTAINMENTS.

In addition to the public installation of officers, Basket Encampment and Picnics, Musical and Literary Entertainments, which have been of frequent occurrence, there has for twenty years past, with the exception of one year, been given each winter a series of Receptions of the character indicated in this program for the last series.

They have been of the greatest benefit in bringing together the old and young, the men, women and children of our people.

THERE IS NO DEATH.

"There is no death! The stars go down
 To rise upon some fairer shore;
 And bright in Heaven's jeweled crown
 They shine forever more.
 There is no death! The dust we tread
 Shall change beneath the summer showers
 To golden grain or mellowed fruit,
 Or rainbow-tinted flowers.
 The granite rocks disorganize,
 And feed the hungry moss they bear
 The forest leaves drink daily life
 From out the viewless air.
 There is no death! The leaves may fall
 And flowers may fade and pass away;
 They only wait through wintry hours
 The coming of the May.
 There is no death! An angel form
 Walks o'er the earth with silent tread,
 He bears our best loved things away;
 And then we call them 'dead.'
 He leaves our hearts all desolate;
 He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers;
 Transplanted into bliss, they now
 Adorn immortal bowers.
 The birdlike voice whose joyous tones
 Made glad these scenes of sin and strife,
 Sings now an everlasting song
 Around the tree of life.
 Where'er he sees a smile too bright,
 Or heart too pure for taint and vice,
 He bears it to that world of light,
 To dwell in Paradise
 Born unto that undying life,
 They leave us but to come again;
 With joy we welcome them the same—
 Except their sin and pair.
 And ever near us, though unseen,
 The dear immortal spirits tread;
 For all the boundless universe
 Is life—there are no dead."

THE DEAD.

Respect for the memory of our deceased Princes has always been a feature of our history.

If possible the Consistory is represented at the funeral of each one deceased, either as a body, by a committee, or a floral tribute, consisting of a large double-headed eagle, the emblem of the grade.

A Committee on Necrology is appointed and their report printed for distribution and then recorded in our "Necrological Record," a book kept separate from the business records, and which now contains hundreds of pages of kind words of our dead.

This is the preface to such reports.

THE CO-ORDINATE BODIES.

Thus far little has been said of the three co-ordinate bodies of the Rite. This was naturally the case from the fact that all of our important events and actions has been done in the name and under the auspices of the Consistory.

All our important business affairs, such as leasing and fitting up apartments, purchasing scenery, etc., is done in that body; the expense being prorated among the other bodies on the basis of the fees collected.

It would be very unjust however, to pass over them without comment, for it is undoubtedly true, that to the efforts of the officers in the lower bodies, much of our prosperity is due.

Those of the elder members who knew of the brilliant character of Ill. Brother H. A. Johnson, assisted, as he was, by such able and zealous brethren as Gilbert R. Smith, Vincent L. Hurlbut, Rev. O. H. Tiffany, Henry C. Ranney, Wm. H. Turner, Enoch B. Stevens, Geo. W. Pettee, James H. Miles, Wiley M. Egan and others of the like kind, will feel assured that the ceremonies were made interesting and instructive in their day.

During the year 1868 the first efforts were made to confer all the degrees in the Lodge of Perfection from the fourth to the fourteenth.

The writer recalls with pleasure the interest attending his first efforts to illustrate the ritual of the fourth and fifth degrees in Chicago Lodge of Perfection. Previous to that time the sixth and fourteenth alone, having been conferred in full. The conferring of the fourth and fifth at that time attracted a great deal of attention, and while to-day such work as we succeeded in doing then, would not be considered desirable, yet it was deemed very attractive at that period, especially as all the parts were filled without use of Ritual or Manual.

These efforts were revived after the great fire of 1871, and in the year 1873, for the first time, probably, in this country, were all the degrees from fourth to the fourteenth inclusive, repeatedly conferred by the T. . P. . and the Deputy, Ill. . Henry H. Pond. From that time to the present, Rituals or Manuals have not been used, every officer memorizing his part or parts. Under McClellan, Pettibone, Bradwell, O'Neill and others the proceedings were especially successful.

When Brother E. R. Bliss was elected T. . P. . he gave a new impetus to the character of the work, and was more successful than any predecessor in giving a new impression and variety of style to all that was done. Never a close follower of the Ritual, yet he would improvise and clothe the lessons of the degrees in language equally impressive and frequently more interesting than that of the book. His administration will long be remembered.

He was followed by the most interesting character of all, Brother J. B. McFatrigh, the present Grand Master.

Perfect as we thought the work of others, he soon showed that he had a new conception of almost every salient feature, and by giving to them the wealth of his genius, deep study and zealous efforts, he has made the Lodge of Perfection the most attractive body of all. He adopted the plan of enlisting as many of the young and active members as he could use in conferring the several degrees, so, that now there is a different set of officers at work in nearly all of the degrees in the Lodge.

He is a strict follower of the Ritual, but has introduced many features, ceremonial in character, which tend to punctuate, as it were, the prominent idea, and vividly illustrate the particular lesson sought to be conveyed.

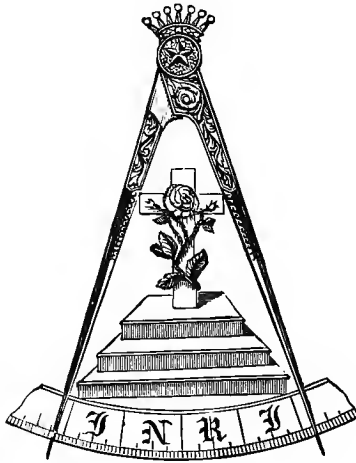

In the Council of Princes and Chapters of Rose Croix we have been equally fortunate. The occasion seems to produce the man who could meet and fulfill the requirements. Especially has this been the case in the Council, under the administration of Princes Tobey, Russell, Poulson, Moulton, Warvelle, Luce, May and the present efficient Grand Master Wm. M. Knight.

Equally effective in carrying forward the ceremonies of the beautiful Orders in the Rose Croix Chapter has been Knights Pond, Church and Richardson, the latter being the most remarkable delineator of those grades that ever presided over our Chapter. His personal appearance, being six feet and a half in height and of massive frame, together with a deep resonant voice, made him appear the very embodiment of the grand ideas conveyed in the Rose Croix.

His removal from our Jurisdiction after seven years service as Most Wise, vacated the office. The Chapter presented him, as a souvenir of their regard and esteem, with a magnificent Past Most Wise Jewel.

He was succeeded by the present Most Wise, Knight John A. May, who is fully sustaining the character of the work of those before him. While he was not the figure nor voice of "Old Rich," he has got a very winning way with him.
